Escape the Noise (Gone by Autumn Book Three) (A Brothers of Rock Novel)

The Brothers of Rock series continues with Gone by Autumn!

Gabe Anselle doesn't really believe in memories, he lives for moments. He'd rather enjoy the parties, shows, tours, and one night stands and then forget them the next day, because the memories can't hurt him that way...

When the band gets a rare break in touring, Gabe decides to hightail it to a place he hasn't been in years. A place that means the world to him because it's the where he fell in love with music.

Sabrina Penten is a hopeless romantic. Her want and desire for a real relationship often takes her down some dark and lonely roads. After being dumped by her current boyfriend, she takes what was supposed to be a sexy weekend away together and spends it alone... or at least she thought she was. The guy staying in the room next to her has a wicked smile and enough bad boy grit to make a good girl like Sabrina want to change her ways.

The weekend is short lived, but the feelings are not. When the opportunity to meet up comes again, Gabe can't believe how excited he is to make memories with this beautiful woman... but when this damaged rockstar opens his heart up, his dark past threatens to ruin his bright future.

Rock stars and candy!

Wow what a setting. A rockstar, a candy store owner and a cabin in the woods. If that doesn't make you wanna read these series of even just this book, then...your nuts!

Another amazing read!

I just can't believe how amazing these stories are! One right after the other I fall for these sexy men just like the women in their lives... With Gabe I felt like I was completely wrapped in his world and my heart was breaking and I just love these guys! On to reading book four.. Asher!

If you like rock and roll musicians, you'll like this one. It's a quick read with likeable characters in Gabe and Sabrina. Gabe being the rockstar that's every woman's dream and Sabrina the everyday girl who was just lucky enough to capture a rockstar's attention when they happened to be at the same retreat. There was some humor and some hiccups along the way and a whole lot of steam. If this was good, it looks pretty good that the rest of the series will be to. So whenever you get a chance check it and the rest of the series out and you just might become a brand new fan.

Sweet times ahead for this ROCKER!

Good guy or bad ass Rocker? Gone by Autumn bassist Gabe escapes the noise of it all, driving to his family lodge for some respite between gigs.

Definitely good girl Sabrina makes a startling discovery, that sends her scrambling off alone to a weekend couples retreat. Now single she's feeling a bit uncomfortable until she literally runs into a handsome guy staying in the room next door. Now they're both inexplicably drawn to each other.

She's afraid of repeating her past mistakes with men, her self-confidence having taken a major blow. He lives only in the present, preferring to keep memories in the past. Gabes's past has a way of insinuating herself into his life, always at the very worst times. How will they ever get past their issues to see if there's something more there? An then there's always the time issue. They only have a weekend. Better hope for some sweet confections to get this pair on a sugar high.

love this series. Gabe and Sabrina's story is so sweet. Both trying to get away from the crazy in their life. the only two single people at the lodge. Gabe was not expecting the connection he found with Sabrina. He realizes he wants more than one weekend with her and he gets it. some little bumps in the road but nothing major. sexy, funny, sweet. then we get the intro to Asher's story and it looks amazing. koodos again Karolyn James.

Judy Robertson says

Awesome read! I love Karolyn James's books. In love I can get lost in the crazy rock star world and get carried away for a good read. Gabe and Sabrina's story is so sexy and sweet. Their story gives us our badass rockers and all the sexy drama thought we want. A awesome book and series to add to your reading list.

Raeline Peterson says

Great book ,i really like this series and i really like Gabe hes my favorite out of all the band so far.
