My Lady Captive Shirl Anders

My Lady Captive is an erotic romance Regency from bestselling author, Shirl Anders. The story follows Lord Wyndham Hawkenge when he dares to try and rescue, Orelan, from the hedonistic clutches of an old revival, Alexei Tropov. Orelan and Wyndham become caught in the lecherous halls of Valcourt. They are unwilling players in Alexei's sexual games as Wyndham tries to find a way to free the young widow, Orelan, whom he once dared to kiss, but now he commands so much more from. There are six markers that Alexei, who covets Wyndham for himself, demands from Wyndham for Orelan's release. The first marker is won by a card game of Monte, where the wager is stripping Orelan. From there winning each marker becomes more sexually dangerous.

Diane K. Peterson says

This erotic historical book had a lot more violence that I would prefer. However, I somehow really like the guys that are part of the Archangels group. With each book in the series we become better acquainted with each of the men. Each is unique and interesting. This book had a satisfying ending and strong relationship. I liked a lot of thing about it.
