I really enjoyed this story. I've said it before and I'll say in again, Nicola Marsh is a fantastic storyteller. I love they way she's able to tell you a captivating story from beginning to end, with developed characters and a story worth reading - all in a short novella. To me that's a true test of a great writer.

I immediately fell in love with these characters. Annabelle is a quirky, fun character to read about. I loved that she was bold with Joel and went for what she wanted. I also couldn't believe how much I felt for her. Every time Joel breaks her heart I felt it deep in my stomach. Joel was sexy and amazing and just a little difficult to read about sometimes. His insistence on pushing people away was a little frustrating and I have to admit that I didn't buy his reasoning for it. But still I enjoyed the way the story played out.

All in all, this was a fun, emotional, sexy read and I really loved every page. I devoured it in one day and I wish Marsh would write more in this series.

Nicola Marsh definitely saved the best till last How hilarious were these two????

I loved Annabelle she is so feisty and direct. Annabelle has been pining for Joel for years, her love is true and dramatic.

Joel is a hoot, running from trouble will only get you into more trouble.

It was refreshing to see the guy be the one with all the hangups about getting together. Annabelle knew what she wanted consequences be damned.

I absolutely loved that they had a past one of childhood memories and friendship.

The electric banter between the two is intoxicating and you only want more.

Who does love the boy and girl next door stories. Knowing each other so long can get complicated and entirely interesting when love comes to town.

I really loved how even though the three stories interconnected they they were completely unique, their own story with their own different backgrounds. I loved how they followed on from each other also.

All up a great addition to the series and an awesome epilogue, that I was grateful for.

Nicola Marsh never fails to entertain and keep you interested, all her stories I have read so far have been beyond enjoyable. I most definitely will be continuing on with Nicola Marsh's work in the future.

Blurring the Line is the third book in the World Apart Series by Nicola Marsh. This is the story of Joel and Annabelle. Joel and Annabelle were next door neighbors growing up. Feelings for each other developed, then one of them ran away without a goodbye never looked back. Now years later they are reunited. Will their questions be answered? Will there be forgiveness? Will they rekindle what once was? Find out when you read this amazing book!

I loved how in each of these books you get to catch up with the other characters from the previous books in this series. All the books in the series are fantastic reads that I will highly recommend to anyone. Nicola Marsh does an outstanding job with this series. I couldn't put these books down. Super reads!!!

This reunited lovers story is that of Annabelle and Joel. Next door neighbours in their home town, one night between them changes their friendship but also puts Joel on the run, and when they meet a few years later halfway across the world it's as if fate is pulling them together again. Can they recapture their lost friendship and find their way back into each others arms?

I quite enjoyed this new adult romance. With alternating points of view, we get insight into the thoughts and feelings of both main characters. They have the memories of their childhood friendship in conflict with their sexual attraction to each other, showcasing that they are all grown up now and are capable of a mature relationship. Joel's past family experiences have shaped the man he is now and he guards his heart carefully, but Annabelle has a way of reaching him that no other woman has. Their love scenes were steamy and well written. I also enjoyed the camaraderie with the other characters in the story who have had their own books in the series. This was a quick and entertaining read with a sweet and sexy romance. 4 stars.

I really enjoyed this book. It was a fast read. Absolutely loved the ending but I wish we got to read an epilogue from the other couples POV. Nice ending to a series.
