Sharon says

Pinkalicious is offered a unique opportunity to act as her school principal for one day--she will make announcements and have lunch with the actual principal!! And she would like to eliminate homework!! On her special day, she wakes up sick! What a disappointment! Is her special day lost forever? A great book for beginning readers.

Genevieve Tibbils says

It made me feel like I was sick myself. In some ways it was exciting to me.

Holly Letson says

Such a fun story! Pinkalicious is full of excitement to be Principal-for-a-Day, but she catches a cold and has to stay home for a sick day instead. Just her luck, Principal Hart is home sick as well. So, she still gets to be Principal-for-a-Day, when she returns to school the next day.

Alina Lu says

I just want to give 2 stars

Joey Gremillion says

One of the most popular book series for the up and coming readers!!

Tami says

Two stars because hope doesn't like when she is sick. Sometimes my friends cough and sneeze. 4 hope wirtheim

Ashley says

This was a cute book.

Beyond the Pages says

This is the perfect story for a little girl on a sick day.

Teri says

As a disclaimer, I am not a fan of Pinkalicious -- but my daughter loves her (and all things pink in general).
Kann has written another cute book.
