DELICIOUSLY CUTE, DELIGHTFULLY SWEET AND DIVINELY ENTERTAINING !!!

Title: Confessions of a Mail Order Bride Series Complete Collection

Author: Kate Kent

Designation: All Six Novellas on the Series, Standalone, NO Cliffhanger

My Rating: FIVE DELICIOUSLY CUTE STARS**

Wow! I fell head over heels in love with the heartwarming Confessions of a Mail Order Bride Series by Kate Kent and read each story as they were individually released. These novellas can be read as a standalone featuring a heartwarming happy ending for the couple featured in each story but fortunately, Kent has now bundled all six stories into one affordable, convenient collection. I became totally smitten with the series several months ago after reading the first release, Lion's Love and could hardly wait for each new release. As I said, each can be read as a standalone but I highly recommend reading them in order because in addition to a wonderful romance for all six couples (and sometimes threesomes-Yowza!), the series also featured an underlying story arc of mystery and suspense which extended and progressed through each story with the wrap up in the final release. Each story is deliciously cute, fabulously funny, delightfully sweet, completely unique and oh so romantic! And did I mention sexy? No? Well, they're definitely sexy and definitely hot! And as are all Kate's books, they are all well developed, well crafted and will most definitely tug on your heartstrings as well as tickle your funny bone and warm your heart. The narratives are fast-paced, well edited and well written in the first person from each heroine's point of view, which stands to reason since this series is entitled Confessions of a Mail Order Bride. The dialogue is well executed, at times absolutely hilarious and flows effortlessly. Kent is a master storyteller and is exceptionally skilled in building unique, fascinating worlds and in this case, all of the stories take place in Shifter Villages, a town inhabited primarily by shifters, of course! But hands down, my favorite part of every Kate Kent book is always the wonderful cast of characters. Her characters are just so darn cute and manage to steal the show every single time. They're always imaginative, engaging, sexy, completely relatable and will steal your heart. And one of the things I've loved most about this entire series is that each of the heroines has been realistic, life-like, down to earth and even inspirational with real issues and self doubts, just like we as women experience every day. I reviewed every story as I read them and would like to share my reviews for each.

1) Lion's Love: Kind-hearted Sherry Cole has suffered emotional pain her entire life - even from her own family. She hates the way she looks. The only thing she hates more is the way people look at her. She has suffered in silence, not only from the cruel taunts about her birthmark but also from the pitied glances she receives from others. Her lifelong dream has always been to find someone to see and love her for the beauty that lies within her heart. If wishes could only be currency, then she would be a wealthy woman. But she has resigned herself to a life without real love. She's lost all hope - until now. Sherry is quite shocked when she suddenly receives an email from a lion-shifter on the Luscious Lads and Ladies site - especially since she never posted a profile! Huh? And he wants to meet her! It seems someone is trying to play a horrible practical joke on her but a vengeful prank by a cruel co-worker may just turn out to be a dream come true for sweet Sherry.

Lion-shifter Adrian Landen has long dreamed of finding a mate. He owns his own barbershop in Shifter Villages but knows that something is missing from his life. Unfortunately, the town is mostly male and there seems to be no hope on the horizon for all the lonely male shifters of Shifter Villages - until now. Bull-shifter Vic Harris, owner of the Big Bull Inn, has decided to adapt his personal blog into the Luscious Lads and Ladies Marriage Mates' website to hopefully give all the single male shifters in the town an opportunity to find their mate. Adrian Landen decides to give it a whirl. It seems Lady Luck is smiling because he just found his mate. Now if he can only convince her to accept him and come to Shifter Villages! Oh my! So what do you get when a lonely lion meets a long-suffering, sweet, shy young woman? One fabulous love story, of course!

2) Bears' Babe: Beautiful, curvaceous Judith Banks has a very successful career as the head accountant for a prosperous marketing firm. Unfortunately, she hasn't acquired the same success in her personal life. She's always been independent and confident but sometimes she does feel a little insecure about the scars on her stomach as a result of an ember from a bonfire catching her shirt on fire as a child. But with two marriages and two divorces in her past, she finds herself longing for a permanent loving relationship. She dreams of having a lifetime commitment like her friend and former coworker, Sherry Cole, found with lion-shifter Adrian Landen from the Luscious Lads and Ladies Marriage Mates' website. Yep, she's been spending way too much time looking at the profiles on their website lately. Fortunately, she's found a shifter that looks like a great match. According to his profile, Brad Stanford is the owner of a very prosperous real estate company and appears to be driven and a hard worker like her. Of course, it doesn't hurt that he's also handsome as well. With Sherry and Adrian's wedding coming up this weekend, she will be traveling to Shifter Villages so it would be a perfect time to meet and get to know him, if she can get in touch with him. She had hoped he would contact her after she placed her profile on the site but after waiting several days and hearing nothing from any of the men, Judith begins to doubt herself. She's never let lack of confidence stand in her way before so she decides to take the bull by the horn, so to speak, and contact Brad by sending him an email through the website. After three attempts she's almost given up when she receives an email from the Luscious Lads and Ladies site explaining they had experienced a glitch in their program and none of the correspondence was being delivered but the problem has since been corrected. They also included two matches for her based on her information and a personality profile test she submitted when she signed up for the site and apparently, both were a 10 heart match - the highest compatibility match possible! There's only one little problem - it isn't Brad Stanford. It's Grant or Evan Myles, twin bear-shifters and co-owners of the Crazy Cakes Bakery in Shifter Villages but neither of those two scruffy bakers look like her type at all! Both are kind of cute but too rough around the edges for her! She doesn't think either would be right for her. But when she checks the compatibility for her and Brad, it's only three hearts. What? It must be another glitch! Thankfully, she doesn't have to worry because she just received an email from Brad and apparently, he's been trying to contact her as well. Oh my! Looks like she'll have a date for the wedding after all and she'll be staying the weekend at the Big Bull Inn, co-owned by bull-shifter Vic Harris, the man who started the Luscious Lads and Ladies website. But once she arrives and speaks to Vic, she learns some very interesting information indeed. Her two perfect ten heart matches were not with Grant OR Evan, it was one match with Grant AND Evan. Oh my! They have a share-bear pact and they want to form a triad! Huh? Yep, they want one woman for them both. Oh my goodness! That has to be a glitch! In her past relationships, she couldn't even handle one man, much less two! Nope, never going to happen! Or will it? When Brad doesn't arrive as scheduled to take her to the wedding, Judith finds herself without a date and with no word from Brad, she accepts a ride to the event with Vic and his brother Max. And who does she meet at the wedding? Why Grant and Evan Myles, of course, who give her a ride to the reception and are all too happy to keep her entertained. Unfortunately for bear sweeties, Grant and Evan, Brad shows up and seems more than eager to whisk Judith away - maybe a little too eager. Oh my! Brad may not be quite the person Judith initially thinks him to be and bear twins Grant and Evan may be so much more. Sometimes, looks can be deceiving. You should never judge a book by its cover or should I say bearskin?!? Hmm...I wonder who will Judith choose? But the bigger mystery is who seems to be causing all the trouble and devastating damage in Shifter Villages and why? One person has already been killed and another seriously injured. What will happen next and who will be targeted?

3) Coyote's Cutie: Marcie Shore has never had an easy life. Her mother died when she was only six and as a result her father became a bitter, violent alcoholic. At sixteen, she quit school and ran away from home. It's a dangerous world for a teenage girl but the first traveler to offer her a ride was a shifter who thankfully gave her a lift to Shifter Villages, a community of shape shifters where she decided to put down roots, at least for a while. She desperately needed a job so she could save enough money to buy a car but who would hire a young woman without any experience and no education? Mel, owner of the Dixie Diner took a chance on Marcie and five years later, she's still unhappily stuck in Shifter Villages with a dead-end job living a lonely miserable life. Marcie's made a lot of mistakes and the greatest of those has been looking for love with all the wrong men in town which sadly, has earned her an unsavory reputation and the horrible nickname of 'Hardcore Shore'. And after her latest hookup with arrogant, conceited wolf shifter and real estate mogul Brad Stanford, there's no longer any chance of her finding love and happiness in the small town of Shifter Villages. Or is there??? It seems everyone else is signing up for the new Luscious Lads and Ladies Marriage Mates website created by bull-shifter Vic Harris, so why couldn't she give it a whirl? Nope, she can't take the chance of being the brunt of everyone's jokes but it seems fate has decided to step in and make the decision for her. Oh my! Will Marcie ever be able to find the love for which she so desperately longs??? Handsome coyote-shifter and owner of Kane's Bar and Grill, Kane Foster has had his eye on beautiful Marcie Shore for quite some time but has never had the courage to act - until now. Once he sees her "accidentally posted" profile on the Luscious Lads and Ladies Marriage Mates website, he knows it's time for him to act and an embarrassing situation provides him with the perfect opportunity! Oh my! Will Kane be able to convince the gun-shy Marcie that he truly cares for her and wants her for more than just her body??? Hmm...I wonder what will Marcie decide? Will she take a chance on love, or now that she no longer has a job, will she be forced to leave town for good??? But the bigger mystery is who seems to be causing all the devastating damage in Shifter Villages and why? One person has been killed, another seriously injured and multiple businesses have been destroyed including the Dixie Diner. What will happen next and who will be targeted? Will the master manipulator and duplicitous Brad Stanford steal Marcie's last chance at happiness??? Will the selfish Brad ever get what's coming to him? Will Sheriff Dirk Matthews finally discover who is orchestrating all the fires and property damage in Shifter Villages? Will Deputy Bob ever leave poor Max Harris alone? We'll see!

4) Wolves' Wife: Jill Lambert has always felt unattractive and overweight. And her mother's constant nagging and put-downs have only make matters worse. Her father had been the only person who had shown her any love growing up but even he deserted her a few days shy of her sixteenth birthday leaving her alone with her bitter and unfeeling mother. Now that she's an adult and her latest boyfriend, John Platt, cheated on her with her so-called best friend, she's beginning to think that her mother may have been right after all - men can't be trusted. But according to her friends and former coworkers, Judith Banks and Sherry Cole, that's not always the case, at least not with shifter men; shifters mate for life. Judith met her two hunky bear mates /husbands, Grant and Evan Myles, on the Luscious Lads and Ladies Marriage Mates' website and so did Sherry who is now happily mated and married to lion-shifter Adrian Landen. And they both are ecstatically happy. Each had suggested she submit her profile but Jill's afraid no one will want a large, curvy girl like her so imagine her surprise when she immediately receives twelve email responses! Wow! Maybe there is some truth to shifters loving big beautiful women. But what's even more surprising is the last email is from not one shifter but two - twin wolf shifters! Hubba! Hubba! And they are the best looking men she has ever seen. They could never be attracted to someone like her, could they? Apparently they could! Her mother just may have a heart attack for real this time if she tells her she's dating not one but two men - twin brothers and wolf shifters to boot. Buttons over biscuits! What's a girl to do??? Why fall in love with them both, of course! You bet your booties they're attracted to the beautiful Jill! Conrad and Kurtis Anderson, owners of C&K Realty in Shifter Villages, are heads over heels for the lovely Jill and want her for their mate. Unfortunately, her ex-boyfriend now wants her back and seems to be willing to pull every dirty trick in the book to get her! Oh my! Will the two handsome wolf twins be able to convince Jill to give them a chance?

5) Tiger's Tease: Makeup artist Ava Adams spends her days making other women beautiful at Dean's Department Store. It's really too bad she can't take her own advice and accept her own natural beauty. Sadly, Ava believes that most people simply can't see beyond all her tats, piercings and studs. And certainly not her criminal record and former drug addiction. Fortunately, none of that influenced her new and very pregnant friend Sherry Cole Landon, a former client who recently married lion shifter Adrian Landon, owner of Sharp Cuts Hair Salon in Shifter Villages. Ava loves Sherry but can't help being a little jealous of the wonderful relationship Sherry has with her new husband and mate. She desperately wants the kind of love Sherry and Adrian share but is reluctant to sign up for the Luscious Lads and Ladies Marriage Mates website which is where both Sherry and Judith found their mates. Who in the world would want someone like her? But after a trip to visit Sherry at Shifter Villages, Ava is hard pressed to refuse her friend's urging to sign up for the site herself. And when Ava immediately receives several requests for a date, no one is more surprised than she, and one of them is a ten heart match which means according to their profiles, they are one hundred percent compatible. Oh my! There's only one little problem. There are no names and no photos. The website is featuring a new blind date promotion with matches being made solely on their personality profile information with no one trying to judge a book by only its cover. Oh goodness! What's a girl to do? Why accept of course! But excitement quickly turns to disappointment when Ava meets her hopeful Prince Charming. It's none other than the bossy man she met earlier in the day at the scene of another fire in Shifter Villages, Sheriff Dirk Matthews! This is bad, very, very bad! How in the world could a law enforcement officer ever be interested in someone like her, a former drug addict with a criminal record. It has to be a mistake, right? I guess we'll have to wait and see!

Tiger shifter Dirk Matthews loves his job as sheriff of Shifter Villages but he longs for love and a mate. And the continued episodes of vandalism and unexplained fires plaguing the town are not helping his disposition. Being an officer of the law is never easy and apparently, he's made some enemies along the way, enemies who are willing to destroy the town in order to hurt him. So far, all his efforts to discover the identity of the culprit, have been fruitless but he refuses to give up on solving the case and finding a mate. And the gorgeous young woman with the tats and purple hair he's just met on a blind date thanks to the Luscious Lads and Ladies Marriage Mates website may very well be his ticket to happiness. He and his tiger both want Ava Adams as their mate but does she want him? Will Ava be able to accept the undeniable attraction and agree to give Dirk a chance? Will Dirk still want Ava once he finds out about her past and her ex-boyfriend? And will Dirk be able to uncover the identity of the person setting the fires and finally solve the case before the town is destroyed? We'll see!

6) Bulls' Beauty: Curvy Sabrina Foster loves her half brother, coyote shifter Kane Foster and his new bride Marcie. Giving up her high profile ad agency job in Chicago and moving to Shifter Villages to become the banquet manager for her brother's restaurant, Kane's Bar and Grill, is the best decision she's ever made. She may only be human but she loves her new home among all the wonderful townspeople, the majority of whom are shifters. She enjoys her job, truly she does, but it's so disheartening, always planning the reception for everyone else's wedding when her deepest desire is to find the same kind of loving relationship and happy ending. All the other women found their mates on the Luscious Lads and Ladies Marriage Mates' website and she's even signed up for the service herself but hasn't received the first reply. Nope, not even a little nibble. It's just plain heartbreaking - not a single man is interested in her. Really? Not! Apparently, the founder and owner of the site, bull shifter Vic Harris, is more than a little interested - he's so interested that he's withheld all of the email responses to her profile. What? But the jig is up when several customers at the restaurant want to know why Sabrina never bothered to reply to their emails on the site. Oh my! So what's a girl to do? Confront Vic to see what the problem is, of course!

Bull shifter Vic Harris developed the Luscious Lads and Ladies Marriage Mates' website to find his mate. Well, he's finally found her but he can't seem to find the courage to tell her. But when Sabrina Foster discovers that she has not been receiving any of the inquiries from men interested in dating her, Vic finally has to fess up to his little subterfuge attempt. And oh glory, Sabrina didn't just receive a few replies to her profile, she received the most of any woman on the site - ever! Oh my! What's a bull shifter to do? Why tell her the truth, of course! There's only one little thing standing in their way to the altar - Vic's brother, Max. What the heck? Unfortunately, Max is also in love with Sabrina. Oh my! And it seems that Sabrina may have feelings for them both. So, which brother will she choose? Or maybe, she won't choose at all! And why is everyone so determined to blame poor Max for all the fires in town? And why does the culprit seem to have a grudge against the Sheriff, Dirk Matthews? All our questions are finally answered in this story! And you're going to be so shocked! I loved it! There's just no way to read a Kate Kent book without having a big silly grin on your face from beginning to end!

So, what did I love about this series? Everything! What didn't I like? Not a darn thing! Would I recommend this it? You bet and I am but only for adult readers since there are a few steamy dreamy sexy scenes. Yowza! Will I read this author again? Absolutely! Just as soon as she releases her next book!

Sandy Digger says

Sweet and sexy

This is a collection of lighthearted, fun shifter romances that take place in Shifter Villages, the shifter town. The site is started by Vic, a bull shifter, to find his mate and a mate for his brother Max. At the beginning of the stories Vic and Max's mother is murdered and Max is disfigured by wolf shifters as he is trying to save her. Then someone starts burning down the town's buildings causing loss and driving some businesses out of existence. This theme continues throughout the stories till the last book where the mystery is solved. A really fun, sexy collection of books!

Great reading

There are some amazing love stories in this bundle. If you love shifters and smoking hot love scenes that end with HEA's, then this is the bundle for you.

Monica says

I'm going to break this down into each book then give my review on the whole set at the end.

Lions Love- I liked the start of it. Then once she meets Adrian though it just seemed way too fast. There wasn't any development in regards to a relationship. Sherry has a birthmark across one side of her face. She's always been judged and ridiculed and is afraid once she meets Adrian he wont want her. The opposite is true. Adrian is actually quite sweet. I think the story idea was good but its just missing something and I think its development of the story. Not much background on the characters and they are extremely quick to rush into the mating after a few hours. Not to mention Sherry of all people judged someone on their looks with everything she's dealt with. Adrian was quick to point that out and she did apologize and admit her error but that kind turned me off about her character.

Bear's Babe- This story surrounds Judith Sherry's former boss and the 2 bears who run the bakery Grant and Evan. Now, Judith is a control freak and finds a different match in Brad and refuses to even give Evan and Grant a chance. I sorta didnt like her because she was a bit judgy on the looks department. I think as a whole it was a better story than book 1 but fell flat because of Judith's unlikable character.

Coyote's Cutie- This wasn't a favorite of mine. I do feel bad for Marcie but she sorta brought it on herself by sleeping with so many around town. Its understandable she would be judged by others...not its not right but thats the reality. She's literally an idiot and seems to be lacking confidence and self esteem enough to keep allowing Brad to sweet talk and continue to use her. She is caught by Kane having sex with Brad in his office no less...yes the same Brad from book 2. Kane humiliates her and I really didnt like him that much because of that. Although she has a colorful past with men didnt give him that right to act that way towards her. So, of course she didnt believe a word he said when he wanted her for a mate. Then he had the gall to offer her a friends with benefits. That cinched it for me there. I disliked him in a big way. Yeesh.

Wolfes's Wife- I actually liked this one. Jill who is another former co-worker of Sherry's is looking for love. She finds them in the real estate brothers Conrad and Kurtis. They are all so sweet. Jill's got some baggage in regards to her father who "supposedly" abandoned her according to her mom. Her mom is a piece of work. She clings to Jill and forces her to stay with her by manipulating her into staying by saying she is sick or whatever else excuse she comes up with. Jill had enough and finally made the decision to live for herself instead of trying to keep her mom happy. Thing is her mother lied to her about her father..he actually died years ago and all this time she believed he abandoned her. WTF...really? She'd rather her daughter see her father in a bad light to make her feel better? TSTL!

Tiger's Tease- This was my favorite! It was sweet and I did feel for Ava's character. She's got a lot of self esteem issues because of how she looks. She's tatted up and had some piercings and purple hair. She's got a checkered past with drug addiction and some jail time. Although she has been clean and sober for awhile she still thinks she is isnt good enough for the sheriff Dirk. He's sweet and a good guy. With all the fires and everything going on with the series...its easy to know who the culprit is. NOt sure why the author dragged it on but ok. Dirk does to go find her when she tries to end things. He did like it so he caught her!

Bull's Beauty- Eh..not a great one either. Vic and Max finally get their story yes but I was expecting something great for these 2 great guys who have done sooo much for the town and finding mates etc. Max is scarred and is afraid he will be rejected because of that. He sorta has been labeled the fire starter throughout the series...poor guy. Sabrina is Kane's sister and she gets together with Vic first and falls for him. I didnt occur to her about Max? Uh she's sorta oblivious cause he came around and TALKED to her. He doesnt talk to anyone! Then she is totally turned off to the fact they want to offer her a triad mating. Geez...why is it a surprise? She actually thought Vic was trying to pawn her off. She didnt listen and just jumped to conclusions. She came around eventually but she wasnt my favorite either. This story fell flat too.

Overall its OK...but not great. Most of the stories were rushed and lacked development with the romances. I liked 2 books really well and the others were terrible. Sorry, but I wasnt feeling it although I read them all. A lot seemed to like the series but we need more development with the characters and to believe the romances and matings and it was hard for me to believe them. The POV was mainly the females and it would have been nice to have more of the male POV as well.

Keoki Ki`ili says

Cutesy love stories with an arson theme running through them. Brought together by a new dating agency, each story includes people and elements of the previous one.

Good box set

Fun read. I enjoyed the books, each short was an easy read.. I liked getting the books in a box set.

Toni says

This complete edition is an amazing read. I enjoyed the different love stories as told by each bride. But along with the stories, there is a major theme/mystery that runs throughout each that draws you into each story. So within this series you have romance with a mystery that ties all the stories together
This is a great read ...

Erica says

This is pure indulgence romance and fantasy and I loved it!!!

The characters are sweet and alpha and super sexy.

I love the vulnerability of the women and the alphaness of the males

I love the ease of the story kept the pages turning and made you want to continue reading.

I loved the romance and the sexy scenes are rawr!!

These can be read as a standalone but please note there is an ongoing story in the background that gets resolved in the final story.

All up an enjoyable collection that I will most definitely re-read again in the future.

Karen S Mursewick says

Hot

It was a great book I especially like the fact that most of the women didn't think they were beautiful until these hot shifters told them they were and they realized they were beautiful all along great book Kate !!!! I would recommend this book to all paranormal lovers ♥? out there !!!! Cause after all who doesn't love ? a shifter!!!!

Jan says

It was cute. Each story moved along fairly well. I have to say I knew who was the culprit by the 3rd book and of course one of the characters already laid out the answer in another book. And the sheriff didn't say anything about that. I would say this was a fun and relaxing read for anyone.
