Karen's Hurricane Ann M. Martin

Stay away, Hurricane Karen!

A hurricane is forming in the Atlantic Ocean, and its name is Hurricane Karen! At first Karen Brewer thinks it is fun that a famous storm has her name. With her class at school, she tracks its path and learns all about hurricanes. Then the kids hear that Hurricane Karen is heading their way. Karen wishes her storm would not get quite so close!

Miri says

A hurricane named Karen is heading right for Stoneybrook, at first Karen is excited but the storm is really scary and so many things are destroyed. Karen doesn't like hurricane Karen at all!
