I think she pick the right person and thats Jeremy... He was by herside the whole time even when she threw up in the hall, and he said "I'm going take you home sweetie and im always gonna be by your side." He spent the night over her house, and he feed her ... Jeremy is the one for her, but Rah he's okay but he going back and forth with his baby mommaand that's to much for Jayd.

I thought this book was amazing. The plot of the story was so deep and interesting. It talked about how the girl had a different life than everyone else. How she her grandmother and mother was witches. How she had to go about different problems that she faced, and focus on her spells and school work. In the beginning of the story she had a relationship with a guy who had a child with baby mama drama. Towards the middle of the story she realized that she doesn't need a boy in her life right now because she has other things to worry about. After she would come home from doing work at school she would have to do even more because she had to study her spells with her grandmother. The unique thing about the main character was she could talk to her mom telepathically and ask her for advice for different situations. I didnt like how the story line dragged on without an ending. I feel that the book was really good the story line is so intense its makes you want to keep reading and I would definitely recommend it to people who like mysterious and surprising stories.

Bibliophile Booklover says

misty needs to go somewhere and get a life instead of trying to take jayd's life ugh! and Rah & Jeremy need to get their shit together boys are so annoying

Keiaira oliver says

The book was better the the book before the other , then this one but she got everthing she want back but is moving to fast

It's almost Valentine's Day at South Bay High, but romance is the last thing on Jayd Jackson's mind... If Cupid had his way, love would be in the air at South Bay High. But even though Valentine's Day is around the corner, no one's having an easy time of it—especially not Jayd Jackson, who lost her mojo after her friend Tre's shooting. Worn out by Tre's death—and sick of the same old drama with Rah—Jayd's suddenly ruining her clients' hair and feeling alienated from her friends. And to make things worse, she's got to watch her back because her nemesis, Misty, is plotting her ruin.

Good thing Jayd has her magical Mama on her side. Because to protect herself and bring her crew back together, Jayd will need more than her inner strength. She'll need the help of her gifted ancestors...

this book is really good i love everything about it

Nyshagriffiths says

This book had so much drama, from one thing to the next, it was good and crazy and I loved it.

This was the first book I read of this serie, but I understood a lot and I can't wait to get my hands on the rest of this serie! This brings culture in so many ways and especially since it includes some Yoruba which I understand. You can tell that Jayd honours her ancestors, respects her culture and family members, battles against her enemies and in the whole process, she never forgets who she is and never forgets to have fun even if it's just romance or figuring out her friend.

Sophia McCutchen says

I was so happy Jayd got what was hers BACK! Misty is very jealous and evil. Rah and Jeremy are suckers.

Diamonique says

OMG What happened to Tre was crazy. Mickey's boyfriend or ex what ever he is to her is even crazier she needs to get slapped. But back to Jayd this was so sad and it hurt her the most. With Valentine's Day around the corner I who she's gonna spend it with friends, family, or a special somebody? It was a great read and i loved it.

A lot of Romance

Morriscia Morris says

It's almost Valentine's Day at South Bay(Jayd's school)but she's constantly watching her back because of her friend Tre's shooting. Worn out by Tre's death—and sick of the same old drama with Rah—Jayd's suddenly ruining her clients' hair and feeling alienated from her friends. And to make things worse, she's got to watch her back because her nemesis, Misty is plotting her ruin. Not only does she have internal troubles, but Jayd also has external troubles too. With her ex-boyfriend Jeremy always following Jayd around she feels that she starting too led him on again witch has Jayd feel that she must choose between rah and Jeremy.

Jayd feels that she cannot count on anyone except for her magical ancestors. So thats who she always turns to. Jayd agrees to watch Rah's baby Rahima, but little does she know she's watching Rahima for the wrong purposes. jad catches Rah still dealing marajuinna and on top of that with his ex-girlfriend which gets Jayd to her boiling point. She knows for a fact that Jeremy would never disrespect Jayd like that even if he has a child of his own(but the baby lives with Tanya Jeremy's ex in New York.Seeing her clique torn apart she'll have to bring her crew back together, Jayd will need more than her inner strength. Jayd starts to connect with her boy. Holidaze was a good book that had lots of drama and mystery. I would suggest everyone read this book. Jayd has become strong with in her powers and became a woman. Shes been threw a lot and had help from her friends and family along the way.

Sydne Hopkins says

This was an interesting book. As a christian it was to get into the magic in the book. I always love the books from the drama high series. I can't wait to see what happens to Jayd and her crew
