Lady of Shame Ann Lethbridge

'You're in danger of dishonoring the family name for good!'

Lady Claire must put pride above prattle if she is to shake off the not-so-respectable reputation of her youth. Swapping rebellion for reserve, she returns to her imposing childhood home, Castonbury Park, seeking her family's help. Penniless Claire needs a sensible husband...and fast!

But when the dark gaze of head chef Monsieur André catches her unwanted eye, he's as deliciously tempting as the food he prepares. Claire knows he's most unsuitable...even if the chemistry between them is magnetic. Risking her reputation for André would be shameful—but losing him could be even worse!

Lucy says

Truly awful. I knew it wouldn't be prize winning prose, but it was absolutely dreadful!

Christina Whitley says

Entertaining romance book.

E_bookpushers says

3.5 stars. I really enjoyed the hero in this installment. I wish the heroine had been less prideful at the beginning and more focused on her child but she worked through that as the book continued.

Mnms says

Starts really well and original, but unfortunately the ending is kind of flat. I loved André as a character, both for his arrogance and his sensibility.

Annie Burrows says

I wish we were able to give half stars, because really this was a bit better than a 3*. An upstairs/downstairs love affair with a slight twist.
