Psychiatry must die! Initially NO (illustrator)

Protest poetry from a psychiatric survivor, who has written a number of poetry books.

Forced-drugging and electroshock aren't healthy any more than violence is sexy. People subjected to regimes of terror, should not be shamed, as though they caused the violations that have been inflicted on them by psychiatry.

This poetry emphasises that awareness is everything and there should be no attempts to hush a genuine protest.

Read this poetry by psychiatric survivor Initially NO. Her words are unshushable to the minds of the truly sane.

Illustrations by Initially NO, also accompany some of the poems.
