UNDER HER SPELL

Sabrina's excited to be a counselor at Camp Bearclaw--until she gets her cabin assignment: Cabin 13, the troublemakers' cabin. She tries to tame the kids without using magic, but they're out of control. When they have a pillow fight that covers the cabin in feathers and stuffing, Sabrina finally loses her temper and casts a good-behavior spell.

Now her campers are amazing everyone with their obedience. But Sabrina knows they can't win the big Tug of War competition if they're acting like well-behaved robots. And she's getting a little bored with her perfect little campers. Should she remove the spell, or is she asking for more trouble?

Alex says

I needed something cute to read, and this fit the bill perfectly. It was definitely one of the better Sabrina books.

Kelly K says

3.5 stars.

This ended a little abruptly but it was a fun read that wasn't summarizing an episode of the show. Wasn't feeling the Mitch thing and I'm glad Sabrina wasn't either. Harvey forever!

Lauren says

I loved all of the Sabrina tales full of magic. Every story was a different adventure and some new and exciting challenge to overcome. These books made me want to have magical powers too but the ending results were hilarious.

Lauren says

I really enjoy these stories and always love re reading them.
