A great conclusion to this shifter trilogy and it is only fitting that it revolves around the Alpha finding happiness. He has definitely met his match in Keir but will they be able to find their future in amongst the wrath that Oscar is attempting to bring down upon Tiber's pack? This entire trilogy is a great addition my paranormal library and recommend it highly.

This book started well, but after the plot become absurd(that black wolf issue was becoming really annoying). The book is too short and goes too fast. This doesnt make the readers able to enoy it as they should. (my opinion, sue me) Anyway i must say that the couple wasnt so bad and some scenes were also funny.

Tiber is trying to increase his pack, and almost every day someone is joining him. The problem is that the black wolf is still out there in the woods, and he cant take families in his pack and risk their lives. He and Connor are patrolling the woods when they see an huge red wolf. The wolf is hurt and lying on the floor. The red wolf doesnt want anyone other than Tiber to go near him and strangely Tiber's wolf really likes this.

They take the shifter to Josh and the man heals him. When the red wolf changes in his human form, Tiber finds out that he really likes what he is seeing.

Keir is sure he found his mate and he will do all he can to keep him. He knows that usually Alphas have more than one mate to ensure to have more kids and increase the pack, but he will never share his man with someone else. He wants to be the Alpha's only. Keir is pushy and a bit of a stalker(well almost). He says always what he thinks and wants to Tiber and the other man cant stop poking him, telling him that most Alphas have more mates. Keir is really jealous and possessive. He has Alpha tendencies, but for Tiber he doesnt mind being a Beta.

Tiber doesnt really want more mates, but Keir doesnt need to know that yet. Tiber likes the other man's jealousy. After their first time together(they still dindt go all the way) also Tiber's wolf is able to feel their bond. They really are mates. During this scene we see Tiber's jealousy while he is thinking about the fact that Keir must have learned what he is doing with someone else before him.

They are still half naked when they hear Donny calling for Tiber. One of the betas was attacked in the woods by the black wolf. (again wtf...) When they arrive on the scene,Oscar already left.

(btw i think there is something btw Aslan and Beau, the wolf who was attacked...)

One month passed, no one has seen Oscar since the attack on Beau. The pack is running in the woods when Tiber smells blood. There is a carcass left in the woods and its smell is attracting the younger wolves. Tiber is able to stop the kids before they eat the meat, the carcass is poisoned and Oscar is behind all this. They soon find out that the carcass was only a diversion and Oscar's real intention was to kidnap one of the kids. A small girl is missing and Tiber, Keir and the others go searching for her.

They follow Oscar's scent to a cave and there an explosion almost buries Tiber alive. Luckily the others take him out and then Connor says to him that he has a new "toy", a spray that can mask their scents and will make them able to go near Oscar without him knowing. (wtf that is absurd and i laughed reading about this soooooo much XD) Tiber will go without spray, while Proctor and Connor will follow him using it.

When Tiber arrives to Oscar's hut, he asks the other wolf why he is doing all this. Oscar tells him that at start he had wanted to kill all the shifters, but that now he wants the pack for himself. We find out that the little girl he kidnapped is his daughter (the little girl has a twin too) and Dina one of the mothers of the twins is his accomplice (Carrie and Dina are a couple and both were Oscar lovers). Oscar wants to kill Tiber, with a gun since he knows Tiber's wolf is stronger than his. The little girl attacks his father trying to stop him, but Tiber is still shoot. (the girl will be ok)

Tiber can feel Keir coming to him and sees the red wolf attacking Oscar and killing him. Keir has followed them.

Tiber will survive and Keir will stay near him all the time till he wakes up. We find out that Carrie is innocent and was only one of Oscar's victim.

Tiber is finally awake and he wants just one thing, claim again his mate. They make love and tell each other about their mutual love and Tiber tells Keir that he will never lose him. The book ends with them cuddling after, and going to sleep.

Keir and Tiber are the couple i liked more in the series.

I really liked Keir's persistence and determination both to protect and support Tiber. Tiber made a great Alpha with his willingness to do what was best for his people instead of abusing his power.

On the hunt for the demented killer plaguing his pack, alpha Tiberius encounters a new wolf shifter. However, Keir is more than a stray shifter passing through Black Creek, he's Tiber's mate.

The Alpha's Only is the third book in the three author Building the Pack series. The pack is slowly building with new wolf shifters who have been rejected by their old packs, making their way to Black Creek. The word has spread among the shifters that Tiber is a strong fair minded alpha, which makes Tiber a desirable leader, as well as a target. Keir is running away from a homophobic alpha intent on murdering him. But before Keir meets Tiber, Keir is attacked by the Black Creek psycho. Once met, Tiber and Keir knew they were fated mates. Nevertheless Keir wanted to break from the pack tradition of sharing the alpha with females to increase the pack members. Keir insists upon an exclusive mating. Tiber is overjoyed with having found his mate. Tiber feared his loneliness would continue the rest of his life. Although, Keir is larger with alpha qualities of his own, Keir is content to follow Tiber's lead as a beta.

Amber Kell has created a superb finale to this very enjoyable trilogy.

The wolf sat in the middle of the floor. It tilted its head in a gesture of curiosity, as if the animal couldn't figure out what Keir was up to. "I believe you promised to fuck me." In a surprisingly short time Tiber changed. "

Building the Pack is a trilogy of books written by Amber Kell, RJ Scott, and Stephanie Hecht. The Alpha's Only is Amber Kell's contribution to this terrific trilogy. Tiberius formed the Black Creek pack after fleeing the homophobia and threats of his birth pack. While hunting for an insane rogue wolf who has vowed to kill every member of his pack, he finds an injured wolf who he finds himself strangely drawn to. Keir wants to join Tiber's pack because he's heard that all are welcome. After healing from the injuries he received in a fight with the rogue wolf, Keir is ready and willing to fight anyone who even THINKS about taking away his mate. Between trying to capture the rogue, and a traitor in the pack, will there ever be time to explore their relationship?

Amber has written a character and plot driven tale that seamlessly blends into the overall stories written by RJ Scott and Stephanie Hecht. With a smoothly flowing plot, and vivid characters, Amber pulled me in from the beginning and turning the page to see what was going to happen next. The world building is excellent, and Amber has a quirky and unique writing style. The story has a great HEA ending that I really enjoyed. If you want a shifter tale that is a cut above the ordinary, then check out all three books in this fascinating trilogy.

This story is part of a series and must be read in order. Tiber is the Alpha of Black Creek pack and wants to find his mate, and stumbles across him when he is looking for signs of Oscar. Keir is overjoyed to finally meet his mate, but he has no intention of ever sharing his mate with anyone else. Tiber and Keir have other concerns first though they have to hunt down Oscar and rescue pack members and they discover there is a traitor in their midst.

Oh Keir is one confident puppy and Tiber soon learns that surrender is bliss. Tiber is still hunting for Oscar, the insane wolf who is murdering Tiber's pack members, while on a hunt he and Conner discover an injured red wolf and take him to Josh. Keir was looking for Tiber's pack when he was attacked by a back wolf, even though he is injured he is still overjoyed to meet the alpha, now he just needs to convince the shifter that they are meant to be together. With Tiber accepting new pack members he doesn't realize that he may have accepted a traitor, but it soon comes to a head and all is revealed.

I really enjoyed this story, I really liked the way that Keir, as a red wolf, was slightly different from the gray wolves, fully believing in the mate bond for red wolves. Keir is also super confident, even though he knows alpha's usually take more than one mate he is determined to prove his new-found mate otherwise and that he is the only mate Tiber needs. Tiber has been alone for some time and although he doesn't say outright at first you get the feeling he has no intention of having more than one mate anyway, he just likes to tease Keir. Their relationship is passionate and they get along brilliantly, the storyline has a good hint of tension with a healthy dose of danger. I must admit to being slightly surprised as to the traitor and cheered happily when they got what they deserved.

I recommend this to those who love shifters, a great storyline, brilliant characters, hot sex, shifters getting their just deserts and a great hot ending.

Definitely my least favorite of the series. This just felt very rushed and the characters were just all over the place. Almost didn't finish.

Katy Beth Mckee says

We again see new members coming into the pack. This turns out to be both good and bad for everyone. They are still figuring out who can be trusted. It was great to see some things finally get resolved as well. I liked the way that Keir was so protective of his relationship with Tiber from the beginning. It is interesting to think about what they will have to continue to do to settle in as a functioning pack.

Out of the three in the series, this one was the least enjoyable for me. I was a little disappointed really, since I'd been hoping for a more exciting book for Tiber. It didn't help that I didn't like his mate pairing. Keir was okay, but I just don't really like the whole bigger guy submissive dynamic. It's just not my preference, so even though Tiber, as the Alpha, was the dominant of the pairing, the visuals in my head didn't let me enjoy these two much. Plus Keir constantly going all possessive over Tiber got a little annoying. I also felt the antagonist in all three books met his end way too easily in this one. Guess the buildup leading to his demise didn't meet my expectations.

I said this about the previous author of this trilogy, and it remains true for Amber Kell as well. Kell's stories are fun and entertaining. They are the books that I am drawn to after a particularly emotional book that leaves me drained. Kell's books are sweet and happy and don't make me think too much. This final book of the Building the Pack trilogy is right on course for the previous books I've read from this author.

The weakest of the series. This could have been a fantastic series but rushed plot as well as insufficient characterisation and relationship development means it is mediocre at best. Disappointing.

2.5-3 stars

This trilogy left me feeling unsatisfied. That was a bummer because I happen to enjoy all three authors. Out of the 3 books this one felt closest to the authors actual writing style.

stars rounded down

When I decided to review the Building the Pack trilogy from eXtasy Books, I thought I would be writing three separate reviews. However, I don't recommend reading any of these books as a standalone. While the main love pairing in each is resolved within the bounds of each novella, you would miss much of the world building, and the connecting story arc if you chose to read only one story.
