Extra Credit (A Student-Teacher Romance)

All I needed was a passing grade. I never expected to sleep with my Professor for it.

When Ava told me she couldn't fail my class or she would lose her student aide I made her a deal that would benefit both of us.

One night of off the wall hot sex in return for an A in my class. Neither of us expected it to be more than one time, until it happened again, and again, and pretty soon we were blurring the lines between student and teacher.

If anyone found out I'd lose everything, but maybe Ava was worth losing everything for.

-This is a STANDALONE with a HEA. It contains hot sex scenes, and a dirty talking professor so get out your text book and get ready to your A.-

Ava needs a passing grade in her business class & she is willing to do just about anything to get it. Her teacher, Andrew Caldwell, had offered Ava extra credit earlier in the semester to help her grade but she didn't do it at the time. Now it is time to ask if she can still do the extra credit. But Professor Caldwell has other ideas in mind for her to earn her better grade. And naughty ideas they were. Both of them have been secretly lusting after one another during the whole time Ava has been Andrew's student. They both know it is wrong to get involved but can't stop themselves from wanting to be with each other. They begin a secret affair so Ava won't lose her scholarship & Andrew won't lose his job. Yet someone else finds out about their relationship & attempts to blackmail Andrew. But what the blackmailer doesn't realize is that Andrew loves Ava & will do what he needs to to protect her & her reputation.

This was a very short well written naughty little tale. Not any real earth shattering problems being solved just a fun & easy story with a good HEA ending. This book is meant for mature readers.

I voluntarily reviewed an Advanced Reader's Copy of this book.

Book Description

"I want you to tell me how much you want it Ava. I want you to beg me. Beg me to give you, your release. Beg. Me." I growled against her p#ssy, her juices coating my tongue. -Professor Caldwell

All I needed was a passing grade. I never expected to sleep with my Professor for it.

When Ava told me she couldn't fail my class or she would lose her student aide I made her a deal that would benefit both of us.

One night of off the wall hot sex in return for an A in my class. Neither of us expected it to be more than one time, until it happened again, and again, and pretty soon we were blurring the lines between student and teacher.

Received and ARC in exchange for an honest review.

Ava is a student with a hot as hell professor, Mr Caldwell. Her thoughts are never far from him being naked and doing naughty things to her.

Andrew is a professor with his eye on the sexy blue eyed student he just can't seem to keep his eyes off. When opportunity arrises he makes her an offer to give her, her "A" if she has sex with him.

Will she be able to resist the sexy teacher and forget about her "A" and fail? Or will the lust she feels for him make her sense fly right out of the window?

Ava and Andrew are cute. Their sex was off the charts hot, definitely needed a cold shower after reading those.

I wasn't expecting the student/teacher relationship from the beginning, It all kinda happened a little too fast for me, I prefer a little more story before to build up lol. Other than that I enjoyed reading it.

This is a STANDALONE instalove with a HEA. It contains hot sex scenes, and a dirty talking professor so get out your text book out and get ready to earn your A.

Wow wow wow , I absolutely loved this really short novella. If your into student/teaches forbidden romances then this is going to hit your spot. Bingo !!

This novella was super hot in all aspects . Thats started on these sex scenes , they are super explosive and they will keep your juices flowing .

There is a bit of drama and I was super shocked to find out who it was . I literally wanted to punch people . If the heroine didn't do it , I would have Gladly did it .

It would of been one of those scenes where I have reacted in my head . I know I am weird , I think of this shit .

I would have taken all my earrings and all my dangly shit off and I would have been like to my Bestfriend , hold my shit , I am going to whip this girls ass .

The only thing that didn't sit right with me was how fast they had fallen for each other . Like yeah it's an Insta love but I didn't expect it to be that instant . Ya feel me ?

If you haven't read this short novella then I suggest that you do because it's hot and explosive ..

Of course I was going to read this. I love the teacher/student trope. But I am not a fan of insta-love, it rips me from what potentially could be a great love story.

This one wasn't for me.

April Symes says

This is a sexy, dirty and forbidden novella –and if you love teacher/student forbidden romances, then this will be right up your alley. Extra Credit is about Ava a college student who needs an A in her business class in order to maintain her student financial aid or she will not be able to continue with college . Andrew Caldwell is her business professor that holds all the cards and he finds Ava very desirable. Professor Andrew offers her an easy A if she sleeps with him—this is after some previous back and forth prior to the offer to sleep together, I do want to state this up front. Andrew finds Ava very sexy and he throws the offer to sleep together out there , and when she accepts, that when the storm of lust and passion overtakes them. At first Ava did it to get the A but soon they are taken by the real feelings that develop but there is a hidden snake that is ready to break this couple up. Will Andrew continue to be with Ava or will he end things ? Will Ava risk her college scholarship? Will this relationship last past the semester?

OMG this novella rocked!! I loved the forbidden student/teacher aspect and the story, although novella length, packed a good deal into it. Only thing I wanted to know was why the villain set out to do in this couple..but overall didn't impact the story so much. Just more a wondering that having to know. Great story and cannot wait to see what Ms. Beck has next up.

My Rating: 4.6 stars *****

This was definitely a sexy filthy forbidden romance. But damn was it ever good. And twist wow I was not expecting that at all. It actually made me prerry mad.

I was enjoying the story until something happened and she didn't believe him. I was pissed at her.

The story is about Andrew and Ava.

Ava is a junior college student and he's her business professor.

She needed an A to keep her scholarship so she pleaded him for an extra credit and she'll do anything to get it. Then their secret relationship started.

Someone was blackmailing him and when he found out who it was and told Ava about it, she called him a liar. There's no reason for him to lie. All he wanted was to protect her and she didn't believe him. Not until she heard and saw the person blackmailing him on the spot.

There's a nice epilogue. (view spoiler)

Steamy, enjoyable, fun, story like a fairytale dream fantasy!! I really liked this hot quick story and it's characters Ava and Andrew.

Ava was looking only to pass her lesson with one big A but things won't be so easy for her cause Professor Caldwell has other plans for her with his dirty talk and his taboo proposition... Will she accept to take part in his plans?? Well you have to read it to learn that!!! But the plot and the scenes the author created they can soak my panties (you have been warned)...

If you're looking for something sexy, hot and quick erotic romance then this story is definitely for you, i certainly enjoyed it and I'm looking forward to read the next story the author will create!!

phoebe says

It's so disappointing, ending the year with a low rating but I can't go higher, I. Just. Can't. Even those incredibly sexy scenes couldn't save the story.

One, I had to force myself to keep my attention on reading the book. And two, there was no actual plot and I still have this urge to write, "There were plotheoles in this story."

It's really sad when I have to write a review like this for a book from an author I usually like but... You can't win them all, right?

Angi says

It's a really good book if you're looking for a hot and quick read. The characters are very likeable and I wish I've had a sexy professor too.

Extra Credit is a student / professor romance. Ava needs an A to keep her scholarship and therefore asks her professor Andrew Caldwell for an extra credit assignment. Mr. Caldwell has something special in mind and the story gets hot. They have this insta-love chemistry and what started as a one-time thing turns into a relationship. It was a little odd that Ava took him home to meet her parents immediately despite the fact that they had to keep their relationship as a secret. They're in love and happy until Andrew is being blackmailed. Will he lose everything because of his relationship with Ava? Is she going to lose her scholarship after all? I received an ARC in exchange for my honest opinion.

Chesca says

ARC kindly provided by the author in exchange for an honest review

J.L. Beck's Extra Credit was insta-love, a kind of romance that I don't approve of at most times but am getting used to. It seemed interesting because it tells the story of a student who started having sex with her professor in exchange for an A. It's a temptation that's going to make any taboo-lover curious.

Like most insta-love out there, it was ridiculous, but the good thing about it was that the author was able to put a little climax to it like a little bump on the road. At least there was that. It showed how serious the couple's relationship was going and that Andrew and Ava both wanted it.

A book's writing is a very big deal to me. It is its bones. I received an ARC, and ARCs aren't that neatly edited, so I understand if it would have some typos here and there. But I could not comprehend how the author repetitively mixed up the use of 'to' and 'too'. It made me wonder if all her books are written like this. Also, there were verb forms that were just so wrongly used. Lastly, there's this thing called a comma which, if given the chance to be used, could make great wonders and stop people from using run-ons.

And so, my friends, this was how I ended my 2016.

Jenny says

DNF @50% Pretty ridiculous and zero plot lol

I received an arc for this book.
I have to say that I have never given a book less than 3 stars.

This is the first book I have read from this author and sadly will be the last.

I am a huge fan of taboo books. And teacher/student romance books are my favs.

And I am completely blown that others found this story to be a 5 star read.

Did we all read the same book????

Let me break it down for you why I gave this book a 1 star review.

1. Didn't know it was an insta-love

2. Unprotected sex. Less than a chapter in. College aged Ava isn't on the pill or ask for a condom. Really???

Andrew, older professor, having unprotected sex with a college chick.

3. No Plot!!!

4. No build up

5. Her parents don't even question their relationship.

6. In love in this than a week!!!!

I tried to love this book but no. Just no!!!
