I absolutely love this book. I know I have read it at-least three times and listened to it on audio, in its entirety at-least 12 times. I keep this book on my ipod and listen to it when there is nothing else to do. This man has a wonderful way of explaining the laws and principles of success in a scientific manner that just simply works every-time. You know what? I am going to have to read it again. Life has been a little crazy for me lately and I need to get back to me.

Adrian Viesca Trevino says

Top 3 takeaways...

- 1) Your success depends on the clarity of your mindset. Need to articulate what you WANT not what you DON'T WANT. If possible, create "holes" in your life to be filled by the universe
 - 2) Formula for changing your mindset: - Understand the hidden beliefs that are keeping you back - Set a vision that is present-tense, BIG, & be living it not observing it. - Add a purpose outside of you to create emotion - Feel worthy of success - Keep feeding your unconscious everyday
 - 3) Past thoughts got you where you are. Future does not depend on that.
