I have a great experience after reading this story and it is so amazing. The only thing I felt worse about the story because it is really hard for me to pronounce the name properly. The story was really good because even when the story starts i was really looking forward to know who killed the the the guy who is really good at karate because the guy give only a single hit and the man is the best karate ever and he killed him.

I like detective novels, so I chose this book "Death in Dojo". It begins with the investigation of the reporter; her name is Kate Jensen, about the death of a Karate master in a Dojo, at a karate training room. While Kate tries to find out the evidences about the death in the Karate room, quickly another death is happened to Ito. Therefore, Kate thought that there isn't normal on the students in Dojo. From that, Kate began to investigate master's son and daughter. The evidences lead Kate to Japan. In Japan, she discovered the truth about incidence of thirty years ago from master's daughter. Brendan Murphy who was hanged for the killing suffered a crime wrongly. The details in the novel present excitingly for readers. Eventually, Kate also investigated the person who is murder. That is Murphy's daughter; it is because she knew her father is innocent, and she wants to revenge for father's death. The novel wants to teach readers that people should not have wrong thinking and actions because they would damage whole the life. I really recommend about this book.
