K. Lynn Cullipher says

Chapter 132 of Kuroshitsuji (Black Butler) by Yana Toboso taunts the reader with a scene that almost--almost--tells the name of the boy we have known as Ciel. The art is on point, as usual. While I am thankful that we are learning the backstory of the Phantomhive twins, I feel as though it is being dragged out a little. Of course, I trust in Toboso's ability to tell a story; I simply wish for more to feast upon, rather than these little snippets of the plot.

A really good chapter that shows a bit of the Phantomhive twins' relationship. Looks like real Ciel might be the possessive type. The only complaint I have that this chapter is short. I cannot wait to read the next chapter.
