This is great!

Unfair fight. 70 against 1; instead it is 1v1 70 times amazing, cruel, beautiful , gory, action packed fight with detailed artwork :)

I think after it he will hold the legendary status :)

This volume is all about Musashi against the whole vicious Yoshioka clan. I didn't do a research, but I thought there was about 30 in the chase, instead of 70. Anyways, there won't be another guy like Musashi in this era. Anyone get ruthless with a gun in the hands and 50 m of range. The way of the sword is magnificent! Osu!

Musashi in an epic royal rumble. Brilliant.

now that's a long fight!

chapter paling menarik dari komik vagabond, musashi melawan 70 pendekar yoshioka. Musashi tau itu hal yang bodoh seperti katak yang terjun di air terjun yang deras, katak itu pasti akan mati. Tapi musashi bukanlah katak, lebih baik mati dari pada harus lari menjadi pecundang. like this chapter

Oh, to wield such a weapon once more.... The samurai sword was the most lethal weapon, until gunpowder. I so enjoyed the scene in "Pulp Fiction", when Bruce Willis is search for the right weapon in the pawn shop. He ends up choosing a samurai sword. I cheered-disturbing the fellow patrons, that fine afternoon in Walnut Creek. Also ruined my date, by telling him I have cleaned up brains too!

Well back to the review-there are lots of blood, brains, and all sort of body parts flying about in this issue. Musashi as taken on 70 angry samurai by himself, and e is covering the field with corpses. Many would believe this is just fantasy, never could happen! Well, the samurai sought to reach this level of fighting-books record techniques to do so, centuries old. The sword is such an amazing weapon, and art form form to hold in ones hands. I do not speak of the crap sold at comic conventions, and the internet. The real blades, that are signed on their tangs,then had the signatures inlaid with gold. Blades that have know history and tasted blood. I was so lucky to grow-up in a poor family, that went to flea markets to make ends meet. 1960's-70's Chicago bloomed with markets, and treasures were found. I have had the great honor of holding samurai swords-amazing weapons still. They have long been lost to me though, but not the memories of holding one in my hands.

Yes, at true piece of art, created to kill cleanly as possible.

Boring Dragonball Z style battle.
