The Ancient Mysteries and Secret Societies Manly P. Hall

WHEN confronted with a problem involving the use of the reasoning faculties, individuals of strong intellect keep their poise, and seek to reach a solution by obtaining facts bearing upon the question. Those of immature mentality, on the other hand, when similarly confronted, are overwhelmed. While the former may be qualified to solve the riddle of their own destiny, the latter must be led like a flock of sheep and taught in simple language. They depend almost entirely upon the ministrations of the shepherd. The Apostle Paul said that these little ones must be fed with milk, but that meat is the food of strong men...

Vincent Konrad says

A nice clear description of a few of the rites and philosophies of ancient sects or 'mysteries'. Brief, but concise.

Joshua says

Another well researched, Manly Hall report.
