Jeremy says

Informative book on digestion, shapes and colors, sewage, toilet paper, terminology, and historical trivia. Detailed (cartoon) pictures.

Meaghan says

I now know more about poop than I ever wanted to know.

Karen says

Super hilarious! This book is chock full of information (almost too much!) and colorful disgusting illustrations. Ha ha ha! A "must have" for bathroom reading.

Miles Fowler says

I was looking for "Everyone Poops" which is for children, but I found "Everybody Poops" instead by accident. (I had an accident, did I?) This one is for adults, and is amusing and somewhat informative. What do astronauts and rock climbers do with their feces? I had not realized that I didn't want to know. So, for some, this book might be TMI. To me it was tolerable and a quick read.

wildct2003 says

Short, but informative, book.

Heather says

A fun bathroom book. Hubby and I had it sitting on the back of our toilet for a while. Good for a laugh, but the facts are a bit random and some of the illustrations are pretty gross even for me (the drawings of giant piles, the guy sitting on the toilet in Italy, and the anorexic woman were a bit much).

Art says

Highly informative. Perfect bathroom reader.
