Campaign for His Heart (The Cardinal House) Joy Avery The Perfect Candidate

Former foster kid Lauder Tolson is running for North Carolina state senate, but his bachelor status makes him look less than family oriented. He needs a lady love—just for the campaign. The ideal candidate is childhood nemesis Willow Dawson. But he once broke the beauty's heart and barely has her vote! Still, to fulfill her own dream, she agrees. Suddenly, they're a devoted couple in public. But neither expects how hot it gets in private.

Sigh...this book so goooooood :-). Willow and Lauder had me on the edge of my seat. Cheering for them to wade through the much to make it had me invested, from the very beginning.

They share a past that makes for just the right amount of tension. The push pull between them made for quite a bit of steam to float from the pages as well. And it was hot, erotic and downright satisfying. Ms. Avery is a master with that, and she didn't disappoint this time either.

Throw in some intrigue and you have one heck of an ending, and even that was to be happily applauded. I thoroughly enjoyed this story, and I think you will too.

Joyful Goodness

Another lovely story written by one of my favorite writers. In this story there was a pretend relationship for a political candidates need to have a more wholesome image. It turned out perfectly in the end.

My, My, My!!

A love that simmered for almost 20 years from foster kids to successful adults, unknowingly by each other until they set sight on each other! This is truly a love story on all aspects! I enjoyed this from the first word to the last! Kudos, Joy Avery! ?
