Ma'Roosha Affan says

Great! This book is an easy-read still full of knowledge. I recommend it to anyone who's interested in the study of religions or who's interested in finding the truth.

Reesha says

Bought this book from Makkah when I went to perform Umrah in class 9.

Nora says

It is amazing to learn that religions are not that Different !
God is Absoulte , written in all religions , languages ..

The position of Jesus In Islam and Christuanity , Islam is the only non-Christian Faith that prescribed faith in Jesus peace be upon him

Great , right !
I love how we're having the same concept ,
Thanks , Dr.Zakir , I discovered lots of things today ..

Bader Abuqamaz says

It a small book that has some perfect descriptions about God in different perspectives.

Riyan says

dis is for my frinds who are the belivers and who are non belivers must read.. ! it will open your mind

Azzam Syafiq says

A very good book for those of you seeking introduction in comparative religion studies. In this book Dr. Zakir Naik tells the concept of God in some of the world's major religions. This is not a book that encourages pluralism in religions, but rather to show that how almost all beliefs points out to the unity of God, and how most popular practices of major religions often contradict the teachings from their religious texts.

Wardatul says

I didn't hate it, it just wasn't an enlightening read whatsoever. Soz.
