Laura says

I have a ton of bibles and translations but truly love this one. I use the daily devotional section in the back month after month. I have been through the step study and in program for years. The devotions day after day are extremely relevant for my walk and journaling. Month to month the issues change and I can see Gods hand in my daily life, giving Him my concerns of the world and journaling His responses. There are a lot of tools here so I use print as well as iBooks version. I won't lose what I learned - For Sure.
