Fabulous Ending!

I was gifted this book by author Jessie Donovan for an honest review.

There is lots of action in this final book of Bram and Evie's story.

Little Murray is kidnapped and then Evie is taken, but she is a very smart Lass and leaves clues for Bram. The Dragon Protectors swoop in and Bram and his Dragon especially are hell bent on getting their Murray and their mate out safe.. Because Evie is their Mate, something that Bram's dragon had kept from him.

Evie never imagined that when she set out to seduce the mighty Bram for protection from the Hunters that she would fall for him. Bram never imagined that the wee spunky Lass would steal his hear I can never put her, not to mention tame his tough exterior and more importantly she is his mate, which he never thought he'd ever have.

I love the way Bram's dragon talks to him, makes for such a refreshing and enjoyable dialogue..Ms. Donovan really knows how to entertain her readers. I can never put her stories down.

Great ending to Bram and Evie's story

I can't wait to read about Melanie's book and see what results are had from it.

I am anxious to read Arabella and Finn's story, that promises to be a very good one.

I was given this book by the author to Beta-read,read and review.

Daaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaammmmmnnnnnnnn!!!!

I have to say that being a beta reader to this beautiful lady does by no way change my opinion or my review in any way(and when i don't like something i do tell her andi complain ...a lot!)

When i got the first draft to beta read i was disappointed and i didn't like the ending and i did tell Jessie that. So when she send me back a second draft with corrections i was like....

"Holy crap Lady yes thats the ending they deserve"

So for me Jessie did it again!

The final instalment on the Seducing the Dragon story just blows your mind.

We see our beloved Evie and Bram to finally find their happy ending through lot of rough patches,explotions,abductions...and yea i am not going to reveal everything!

As always the characters have their own unique personality with Evie being the sassy woman she is (and makes us laugh so much when she bumps heads with Bram)

And of course Bram being the Alpha male he is (ohhh man!)

Of course lets not forget those hot steamy sex scenes with Evie and her Dragon man that i swear girls will make you drool and pant.

I am sad to have reached the last page but not sad to have met Evie and Bram and read their story.

This book won't disappoint you at all!!!!

If you haven't read yet Evie's and Bram's story then you have too!!!

Great balls of fire! This just gets better and better! Ms. Donovan has not only kept the momentum of this story but she has definitely kicked up the heat - again in this powerful fourth and final installment of her Seducing the Dragon series. We are waist deep in suspense, murder, danger, secrets, romance and plot twists! I love it! Donovan continues to tease and tantalize us with her amazing talent and incredible imagination. Ms. Donovan never disappoints her readers and has once again delivered a masterpiece of entertainment. Exciting! Well Written! Original! Snappy! Flirtatious! Witty! Gripping! Powerful! Thrilling! Suspenseful! Captivating! Riveting! Addictive! Romantic! Sweet! Sensual! Sexy! Steamy! And did I say hot? Oh yeah! The characters are fascinating, imaginative, edgy, well developed and intriguing. The story flows rapidly and beautifully while the dialog is smart, witty, and well written. Handsome, sexy dragon shifter, Bram, Alpha of Clan Stonefire, is responsible for the welfare of not only his clan but also a motherless infant male dragon shifter, Murray, whose mother died in childbirth from now it seems, questionable circumstances. Beautiful, sassy human Evie, inspector with Department of Dragon Affairs, sent to investigate the death, is being targeted by ruthless dragon hunters. Evie has now found refuge with Bram and Clan Stonefire but is she really safe? Apparently not! She and Murray have been abducted by the dragon hunters along with two female dragons and things are not looking good for any of them. Will Bram be able to control his growing attraction and feelings for Evie and keep a reign on his dragon? Will Bram be able to save Evie and wee Murray? And just what little tidbit of information is Bram's dragon concealing about Evie and will it affect her future with Bran? What a bombshell! That naughty, naughty dragon! Oh my-mysteries abound! Murder and kidnapping-check! Heinous villains-check! Suspense, secrets, betrayal and intrigue-check! Romance and steamy sex-check and check! Hubba! Hubba! Kept me on the edge of my seat! I couldn't turn the pages fast enough! Spectacular from beginning to end! Fabulous entertainment! This is a series you don't want to miss!

I was captivated by this story from the first sentence and couldn't put it down. Donovan had me completely hooked and her plot twists took me on a wild ride. Not only was the storyline fast paced and inviting, but Donovan's descriptions brought this world to life in a vivid way. It was easy to picture myself alongside the Stonefire Clan. I felt like I was part of the story by the end.

Even though Donovan had done a fantastic job of character development up until this point in time in the series, the main characters become such vivid individuals here that you can't help but fall in love with them all over again. Not only are they fantastic individuals, but their relationship with one another is fantastic. I loved the banter between the two. Not only was it fun and natural, but it also highlighted a great deal about their relationship with one another. Even through the suspense and danger in this novella this couple left me with a warm, fuzzy, happy feeling. The characters' emotions really shine through. Readers feel for them and along with them.

This was a fantastic conclusion to Bram & Evie's story. Donovan wrapped the entire story up in an excitingly romantic manner, while at the same time leaving us dying to get to know the rest of the clan better. I can't wait to return to this series with the next story. I also wouldn't hesitate to recommend this novella to those who enjoy paranormal romance, but do be warned, the 4 instalments do need to be read in order for the full impact.

Please note that I received a complimentary copy of this work in exchange for an honest review.

I really enjoy reading this author. This series is one of my favorites and I can't wait for the next installment from Melody and Tristian.

This anxiously awaited final part was everything I've come to expect from Ms. Donovan. We ended part three with Bram out of control trying to protect Evie. The clan is in danger and needs their leader. Evie uses extreme measures to bring Bram around. One he hopes she never uses again.

They are in hiding to protect Evie from dragon hunters. However a dragon baby has been taken as well as more threats to the clan and loyalties suspected. Tentative Allies made.

We come to know and love other characters hoping for more stories concerning them. These characters are likeable and the villains clearly unlikable.

During all of the battles, rescue attempts can Bram and Evie find their love? What is Bram's secret his dragon refuses to disclose and how will it affect the couple? Two strong personalities – strength necessary to lead a dragon clan. We get the answer to the question, “ Can Evie Seduce the Dragon?”

I was provided an ARC for an honest review.

Jessie Donovan delivers another awesome paranormal romance that will have you drooling over the Stonefire Dragons.

Parts 5-8 are a new arc in the Stonefire Dragon series and this time the Clan Alpha is about to bite off more than he can chew in the form of Department of Dragon affairs inspector Evie Marshall. Now, Evie has an agenda of her own when she heads to Stonefire to do an inspection of the humans there because Evie is about to do as the title suggestsand seduce herself a dragon and that would be none other than Bram Moore-Llewellyn Stonefire's Alpha. Bram is expecting the DDA inspector and is quietly amused when Evie turns up in her tight clothes and high heels, he knows something is up with her but is willing to let things play out. Evie fumbles around with her attempts at seduction and comes off as a clumsy person but ends up spilling her secrets when Bram calls her on it. Her secret is that she is being threatened by the Dragon Hunters because of her DDA status and insider knowledge, she can't talk these threats lying down because a lot of DDA inspectors have been found dead lately and with that she deduces that if she seduces the alpha of Stonefire, he will then protect her against those who wish to destroy her. Their mating would mean a lot of changes for both of them plus, it could have disastrous consequences from both the Hunters and the government. The thing is, it doesn't matter to the Hunters who is protecting Evie, they want her.... And will stop at nothing to get her.

I really enjoyed this book, I like to read them all in one go because I don't like to wait for the other instalments so the omnibus editions are perfect for me. It was good to be back on Stonefire lands and really easy to get into. We know Bram already from Mel & Tristan's story so we know there are reasons behind the fact that he is mateless and we quickly find out that Evie is not compatible to be a Dragon's mate so her suggestion is one of an arrangement rather than love..... or is it? I thought Evie was a fab character, full of sass and determination. I thought she was perfect for Bram because you could really see her leading the Clan alongside him, she has that authority about her and a way of getting to the bottom of things that would come in really handy, I also liked her risk taking too. Bram entered this with humour thinking she didn't want anything serious but was willing to come to the arrangement with her because it was good for both of them but as the story progresses we see that there is more to the pairing than meets the eye. I absolutely love the relationship Bram has with his dragon and their internal dominance struggle, it was so funny that his dragon was down to his base instincts and couldn't see past claiming Evie whilst Bram tried to remain aloof, they sort of have different personalities in one body. As usual in PNR there is plenty of sexytime to get us all hot and bothered and these two were hot together.

The storyline progressed perfectly from part 1-4 and the Dragon Hunters become a more prominent enemy. They start to take huge risks here, infiltrating dragon land and causing havoc in an attempt to get to Evie. Evie works them out though and what she discovers is shocking and makes you wonder who the monsters truly are. Of course all of this brings Bram's dragon's protective nature to the front and tensions are high. We meet some new characters who are from the Scottish Dragon Clan and I'm really hoping for more from them, Finn was fun and playful but all business when needed as the Alpha and I'm loving the connection he has to a certain lady dragon that promises to be a good story in the making. I liked getting a really good look at the enemy and what they were about, in parts 1-4 you could easily mistake them for a band of outlaws who are determined to rid the world of dragons but here we see just how organised they really are, what the true nature of their game is and how invested they are in what they are doing – I was quite shocked at the lengths they would go to. There is also plenty of action too where we see the Dragons fight back! Coordinated battle plans, ambushes, tons of fighting too so I was very satisfied with where the story went and can't wait for more!

I received this book because I am part of Jessica's Ambassadors ARC Team and to give a honest review. But I am a HUGE FAN of Jessie Donovan I have been since reading my first book by her but I am biased when it comes to her books, but I know once you read this book I feel you will agree.

Seducing the Dragon, Jessie has created a Fantasy Paranormal storyline in which Dragons clans exist with humans but there are Dragon hunters who don't want them to exist. There are humans who want the Dragon clans to exist peacefully with the humans. Bram's dragon knows that Evie is their mate so the dragon has control of Bram for now because of the mating frenzy. Evie was enjoying all of Bram's attention but she was puzzled because she was tested when she was a teenager and she tested incompatible to Dragons but she is beginning to wonder if the test was wrong. But Evie knows the Clan needs Bram at this time, so she is trying to figure a way for Bram to take back control from his dragon.

I really enjoyed the way Evie decided to get Bram's Dragon to lose control, I won't spill the beans because when you read it for self I think you will laugh as I did. Evie is kidnapped by the Hunters and a dragon shifter who was once a part of the Stonefire clan who was banished by Bram and of course he is out for revenge. But Murray has been kidnapped and Bram is needed, but Bram dragon did not want to leave Evie but Bram promise the dragon he will be able to scent Evie when they take care of the threat to the clan. Bram arrange for two protector Dragons to stay and protect Evie. Unfortunately the Dragons were over powered and Evie was trying her best to protected them and leave Bram some clues to how to find her and the female dragons. Unfortunately, the hunters used one of the female dragon to get Evie to cooperate without fighting. Before she knew it they had the female shifter dragon to shift into her dragon and had her chained and was draining her blood. Evie was taken to room and was fronted by the kidnapper who was dragoman Neil Westhaven, Evie tried to help in her rescue but it was to late for the female dragon. In the end Evie was Bram true mate and if you are a true mate of a Dragonman the test is not valid. So Bram and Evie was able to adopt and have a family.

The storyline is funny and makes you feel good reading Bram and Evie's story. That what I really love about Jessie creative imagination and her characters always make you fall for them even the supportive characters has swag, her love scenes are hot enough to make you break a sweat. There is drama, a little sadness and it's the kind of story that you want to keep reading. I myself really like when I can pick up the storyline from the last book in the series. The dialog between the characters is very funny and will make you laugh out loud and everyone looking at you with the looks that's said can you share the joke. When I finished this book I had a smile on my face for awhile.

 OMG, this is a absolutely thrilling end inning to a fabulous series by an author who has won a legion of fans with her outstanding highly sensual fantasy romances. By mixing the human with aspects of the fantasy realm, and enough twists and turns to keep you guessing, she adds a most delicious side to what is a very bold and exciting series. Bram dragon was Awesome and he is soooo very h-o-t! Evie is funny and beautiful, and the hunters are just so evil! Oooh, this Awesome Dragon series is sure to keep you on the edge of your seat and looking forward to more! I know Iam!

Jessie Donovan does it again by drawing us into the world of the Stonefire Dragons. In this conclusion of Bram's and Evie's story, we see how the clan deals with many obstacles, a new clan leader that needs to earn their trust, and old clan leader that needs to get ahold of his dragon, kidnapping, death, and even some love and hot sex thrown in. As with every book in this series, I am sad to see I have hit the last page but happy to have read such a wonderful book.

Sandy says

This book was just as good as the last. The story starts where the last book left us...in the cave with Bram in a mate frenzy. Evie is sleeping or feigning sleep while she thinks of a way to bring the human side of Bram back to the surface. She decides to go to the bathroom & look for something to use as a weapon. It is vital that Bram's human side come back in control or the clan could very well perish. The only thing she can find is a plunger so she takes it with her when she leaves the bathroom to confront Bram. He is insisting on sex and she tells him to let the human side back in control, which Bram's dragon refuses. So she whacks him between the legs a couple times before the dragon side lets go. When Bram's human side returns (& after rolling around in pain for a bit) they make plans for Bram to return to the clan and leave two of the female dragon guards with Evie. Of course things can't be too simple so after Bram leaves the cave, it is invaded by dragon hunters. The guards are disabled and they are all taken to the hunter's laboratory. The dragons are subjected to draining and torture and Evie is put in a cell. The action really increases in speed from there and the reader is kept sitting on the edge of their seat during the next sequence of events. There is eventually a happy ending with a few sad happenings but this is the happy ending to Bram & Evie's story. I can't wait to see if the next book is Arabella's story since we are given teaser glimpses of the attraction between her and Finn. Definitely worth reading

Eva Millien says

Bram and Evie face some really bad odds but these two are stronger together especially after Bram's Dragon reveals a few secrets in this pulse pounding final installment of Seducing the Dragon.

Evie has to lure Bram's dragon into letting Bram have control back because they have to rescue Murray and see about finalizing the alliance. The reader can't help but get caught up in the story as Evie and Bram take Clan Stonefire by storm and put the bad guys in their place. Lots of spine tingling excitement and passion keeps the reader on their toes in this fast paced and smooth flowing plot full of suspense and excitement.

Once again, Jessie Donovan held me hostage with her fascinating dragon world and sexy dragon men and I can't wait to read the next one.

My Thoughts - 5 out of 5 Unicorns - I loved it!!!

Received the ebook from the author from an honest review

The cover is nice, but not my favorite picture for Bram. He doesn't look like the big strong dragon shifter he should, but this is my opinion.

Okay, this is a serial novella series and with the publication of this book it is now complete, and I heard a boxed set it coming soon :) Serial mean is a published in parts and all the parts together equal a whole book. Jessie Donovan is fantastic at writing serials because not everyone can do what she does so well. This is also a HEA which means it has a happily ever after type ending to the serial....though with dragon hunter threats never going away, I'd wager it is my HFN which is happy for now.

Jessie's writing style is so easy to get sucked into and imagine being right there in the action. Her descriptions and creativity just amaze me. I wish I could be this creativity, but I'm not so I'm just continue to be a bookaholic :)

Lots of action and conflict with the dragon hunters making you want to devour the book. Evie is really amazing with her brilliance and clear headed problem solving. She knows how to handle both dragons and dragon hunters. Bram has amazing strength, and he is a great leader. Evie is his perfect match. But shifter books are my go to reads, so I'm a bit biased too :)

I highly recommend this serial series to all of Jessie's current fans and to all those who love a good shifter read!!

Tiffany says

Jessie never fails to deliver in her stories. I was actually sad to see Bram and Evie's story come to an end. Bram is determined to save his clan from the dragon hunters that not only want them dead but much more now. Evie is a DDA who has been sent to investigate the death of a human sacrifice in Bram's clan but she hopes to get Bram's help in keeping her alive.

Bram and another clan leader have worked to make an alliance but will it hold during this time of trouble and with his attraction to one of the female dragons of the clan? Will Bram be able to put a stop to them being hunted? Will Bram and Evie make it out alive? Will Bram take her as mate. What does his dragon know about Evie that he isn't sharing?

If you like romance, adventure spiced with danger and lots of hot sex then you must read Seducing The Dragon books.

Well, this is the end of another story arc for this series and I received an early release of the book and am happy to report that Part Four is a great contribution to the Seducing the Dragon series. Evie Marshall and Bram are to finalize their mating which seems like an odd sentence when I look at it and think of it applying to humans. Well since one of them is part human then it is not so odd I guess. Part Four picks up right where Part Three ends and I have to say that the author does a great job of transitioning to the next part of the story without leaving gaps in the story. The reader also gets a great finish for the story with a nice lead-in to the next part of the story. I'm not sure how many are planned but this series does not disappoint. It contains great action, romance and steamy scenes for the readers. There is something for everyone with none of the fist shaking at the author for leaving us hanging for a couple of months.
