Good Night Chicago Adam Gamble , Joe Veno (Illustrator)

Good night Chicago explores the Chicago Harbor Lighthouse, Navy Pier Ferris Wheel, Chicago River and bridges, Lincoln Park Zoo, Shedd Aquarium, Field Museum of Natural History, Water Tower Place, blues musicians, fantastic fountains, Adler Planetarium, and more. Welcome to the Windy City. Young readers will be treated to a personal tour of one of the most fascinating cities in the US. Go Chicago!

This book is part of the bestselling Good Night Our World series, which includes hundreds of titles exploring iconic locations and exciting, child-friendly themes.

Many of North America's most beloved regions are artfully celebrated in these board books designed to soothe children before bedtime while instilling an early appreciation for North America's natural and cultural wonders. Each book stars a multicultural group of people visiting the featured area's attractions as rhythmic language guides children through the passage of both a single day and the four seasons while saluting the iconic aspects of each place.

Lia loves this book!

Jackie says

Lots of cultural attractions in this board book for baby and parents to gaze at and recognize. A nod to Goodnight Moon with a Chicago connection.

Caitlinleah says

Perfect if you're looking for a board book with ugly illustrations that names every touristy thing in Chicago.

Julia says

This is a charming book that would make a great souvenir for those who are visiting and/or staying in Chicago. It starts off from morning then closes at night while visiting some of the prominent known spots within the limits of Chicago.

Although I only stopped at the train station for a few hours, I did get a chance to see some other places that weren't mentioned. Furthermore with the beauty of the actual train station and its fame throughout for its opulence I was disappointed in not actually seeing that being included within the locations of the book.

Otherwise it is a quick and enjoyable read that will please many who enjoy Chicago for years to come.

Shauna says

Great board book about many fun things to do and see in Chicago--museums, buildings, sports activities, etc.

Shelly says

My son loves this board book. We read it every afternoon before his nap and every night before bed. Normally he'd be getting sick of a book read that often, but he still requests multiple readings each time. I will definitely be looking for other books in this series.

Lindsay says

We LOVE this series! We read one to Clarissa every night!!

Regina says

Very cute,...but also a bit generic.

Lynda says

The Chicago location for the "Good Night..." series is fine with the usual colorful, local attractions although some of them seemed a little generic. Perhaps due to copyrights or licensing?

Anna says

A nice bedtime story highlighting some of the sights and famous landmarks of the city of Chicago. Definitely gave me a good sense of my hometown.

I picked up this board book at BEA thanks to Good Night Books. Since we were in Chicago it seemed appropriate to get this one tied to that city. For someone that is traveling to Chicago (or any city if you pick up one of the other books) it is a great introduction into some of the things that you might see and do on that trip with a young one. The illustrations are colorful and engaging and help share what the child will see when in this city.

I like for the sports teams where it is generic wording but the illustration depicts all of the major sports teams in Chicago.

The book takes the reader from morning until night and wishes each spot either good morning, good afternoon, good evening or good night.
