I always like using the Eyewitness Travel Top 10 guides as a starting point for travel research. The Naples and the Amalfi Coast version is another solid beginner offering. The guide is colorful and gives brief blurbs about ten related items per section. There is a bit of redundancy among the sections, but that's acceptable. The information is short and consumable. The Top Ten are: Palazzo Reale, Castel Nuovo, Dumo, Museo Archeologico Nazionale, Capodimonte, Certosa di San Martino, Pompeii & Herculaneum, Capri, Ravello, and Paestum. The book also includes a pull-out map.

A useful starter book but I would recommend getting something more comprehensive if you're looking for an in-depth look into the area, it's just not detailed enough to be the only guide for a trip.

Another all star guidebook. I'll have this in my rucksack this summer on my Italy trip.
