Magic in the Desert: Three Paranormal Romance Series Starters Set in the American Southwest

Christine Pope

Three complete first-in-series paranormal romance novels:

DARKANGEL

Finding the man of your dreams can be a real nightmare....

As the future prima, or head witch of her clan, Angela McAllister is expected to bond with her consort during her twenty-first year, thus ensuring that she will come into her full powers at the appointed time. The clock is ticking down, and her consort has yet to make an appearance. Instead, her dreams are haunted by a man she's never seen, the one she believes must be her intended match.

But with time running out, and dark forces attempting to seize her powers for their own, Angela is faced with a terrible choice: give up her dreams of the man she may never meet and take the safer path, or risk leaving her clan and everyone in it at the mercy of those who seek their ruin.

BAD VIBRATIONS

She thought she could see it all...

He showed her so much more.

Psychic Persephone O'Brien thinks she's always prepared for the unexpected, but when she reaches out to distractingly attractive ufologist Paul Oliver for help, the two of them soon find themselves drawn into a far-reaching conspiracy that sends them on the run — as well as into each other's arms. And after Paul is captured by sinister agents, Persephone must join forces with an unlikely group of UFO hunters to rescue Paul and derail an alien plot before it's too late.

CHOSEN

When a fatal fever nearly wipes out the entire world's population, the survivors of what became known as "the Dying" believe the worst is in the past. Little do they know....

In the aftermath of the Dying, survivor Jessica Monroe searches for sanctuary in a world unlike any she's ever known before. As fear and isolation envelop her, Jessica encounters the sensitive and helpful Jace, who she believes is another survivor. But Jace has a past and secrets of his own that's he not ready to disclose. Soon she realizes that the destruction of humanity might actually be the first step in a larger, more complicated plan — a plan that may very well involve her. Struggling to discover her role in a terrifying new world where everything has changed, Jessica must decide who she can trust. But is the price for that trust just too high?

Dana says

It was ok

I liked the first "book" I went and got the others that follow. Second and third "books" eh ? third one for me was boring. My opinion nevertheless...

Review

This book was free. An excellent book which I enjoyed greatly. The story of Jessica and 'Jace' was a great page turner which kept me interested right till the very last page. Not your typical love story which is what kept me interested. Defiantly going to carry on with the series.

Tamara says

Good starter

So I didn't realize that it was three separate books but in the end they are all great starters for each series

Jeanne says

Teaser

This is a well written beginning of a story. It is apparently the first of a series of three that leaves you hanging. A teaser to get you to buy the next books. I really dislike stories with no ending!

Julie Hillman says

Fantastic boxset

Interesting three reads of love, hate, hope, fear and all that paranormal. Interesting reads that have a follow on story in the series.

Marj Cinqualbres says

Good stories

Interesting reads. - somewhat long drawn out chapters. "Dark Angel" is cliff hanger if you want to spend the money. The other two books are also this first book in a series. Be prepared to look for the rest of the books.

A wonderful creation

I loved all the characters ! The story s were amazing. I loved them all. I would definitely recommend this starter set to everyone!!!

Barb VanderWel says

I love this & I can't wait for more.
I will be also leaving a review on Goodreads @ Amazon.
And letting everyone know about it.
So i gave it a 5 Stars.

Jessie Mckissick says

A fantastic collection of love against evil

This "Magic in the Desert", was a great success by Christine Pope. I felt that the plots for each book was masterly accomplished with depth and feeling. If you love paranormal romance, this is the series for you.

Crystal says

Great story, but a cliffhanger

I really hate cliffhangers. It is an incomplete book. I'm good with a series if they wrap up one plot and continue a new conflict in the next story. This one is just a cliffhanger. Interesting story though.

Tina says

I had a really hard time getting through this box set. I liked reading dark angel but as for the rest I wasn't interested even though I tried.

BAD VIBRATIONS

This is an alien invasion series and is a mix of adventure, conspiracy theories and alien hunting! It was a great break from reality! It's fast paced and had me hooked in no time!

Persephone is a psychic, a real one, and with her spirit guide Otto, she has made a name for herself dealing with Hollywood types and steering them away from disasters in their careers. When a new client tells her about the strange antics of his girlfriend, she gets pulled into the mayhem of alien hunting! Paul is an academic and alien hunter. His beliefs got him binned from his Astrophysics position at university and he is now part of the underground network dealing with aliens usurping certain bases and using humans as disposable test subjects.

When Otto leads her to Paul they end up on the run and meet up with others in the network in Sedona: Kara, Kiki, Lance and Matthew. They make an awesome group of alien hunters, each with their own ideas on what is happening and each with a little something extra to make them invaluable to Paul and Persephone as the danger mounts.

The plot is well paced and as long as you like alien type stories you will get sucked right in! Please disconnect from reality and enjoy this adventure with awesome characters and the eponymous Men in Black (there is definitely more to them than the usual government agent).

Chosen

This was a different read for me. I usually like straight up paranormal romances, which this is, but with a liberal dose of apocalypse.

Jessica is a Postgrad and a pretty average girl. A new disease strikes quickly and indiscriminately in the world and Jessica quickly loses those she loves. She is guided by a voice in her head, which comes to her in moments when she doubts herself or when she is about to walk into a dangerous situation. The "voice" also physically intercedes on occasion. She is led to an isolated house which is packed with the necessities. The story then evolves into a love story with the arrival of Jace.

I don't want to tell too much more of the story line. Suffice to say this is a very atmospheric story, and I genuinely had hairs on end at parts. I loved the references to current TV shows which had a similar feel to the book, the Walking Dead for example.

Jessica is a strong, sympathetic but capable female lead. Jace is perfect as the mysterious stranger. Is he one of the good guys or bad guys? I thoroughly enjoyed this and am looking forward to the next in the series.

Lise says

This collection contains the first book from three different paranormal romance series. These are not YA books - two out of three are sexually explicit, the third is highly suggestive and contains a rape-bait heroine.

Dark Angel was my least favorite of the three. This is the one with the rape-bait heroine, both because of the books situation and because of the nature of her own powers. Strangely, the book ends before she actually has sex with anyone, but the 'will they or won't they' situation it leaves her in is pretty heavy handed.

Bad Vibrations was my favorite of the three. The protagonist has a few Mary Sue characteristics (as in she has incredibly strong powers within the scope of the story) but is not perfect and does not provoke arbitrary positive or negative reactions from the other characters. The world and situations are interesting, and I might seek out other books in the series.

Chosen, the third included book, was readable. It's the first supernatural apocalyptic romance novel I've come across, and it's a curious piece.
