Caitlyn Amsden says

In this book called Blind and Dark by Angelina Krafft the main character is named Kara. She realizes that she isn't living life like the friends, family and society that surrounds her. She is an orphan who lives alone because both of her parents passed away. She has different day to day struggles but then one day meets a boy named Kyle. Throughout the story is how she is overcomes things and how her life has changed since meeting Kyle. This was a book that was a good read but it was hard to read straight through. I would recommend this book to teens or preteens mostly.
