This is the only book I ever read without page numbers hah! The story felt kinda rushed, but a good story line. I enjoyed reading this. Thank you for a copy of this, and for signing the book. Won from a Goodreads giveaway

This book was given to me by the author in exchange for an honest review

Kinetic was a very fast and enjoyable read. It starts out with Kattlynn's 18th birthday being in a few days and she and her friends are just trying to figure out what they want to do to celebrate it. One day a new boy, named Chase Karson, and his family have moved to her town and she knows him right away. She has been having dreams for a while where she and a boy she believes to be Chase have been getting to know each other and seemed to have also kissed sometimes because she wakes up with flushed cheeks and swollen lips. He tells her that he is her guardian and her perfect match. He also tells her that her he is the boy from her dreams and the dreams have actually happened and they were always meant to be with one another. The romance was a little rushed but it was so sweet how they interacted that you could really feel that they truly loved each other. Kattlynn always thought her mother died a few years earlier in a car accident, but Chase and his family think that may not have been the case. She learns that her mother was actually Artemis, the Angel and Goddess of Light. They think some bad Angels called "The Delphian's" had a part of her supposed death and are now after Kattlynn. Now Kattlynn, Chase and their friends have to work together to stop the "Delphian's" once and for all and not everyone may make it to the end.

The reason I gave it three stars is because, where I liked the story, it just needed a little more information. It seemed just a little too rushed and fast and I wish it was a little bit longer in explaining more. It seems that some of the characters just popped up without any sort of backstory to them. Also it would be better if some of the abilities could be broadened. Like Chase and Kattlynn can talk to each other with their minds and she can block her mind sometimes, but there was no mention of how she could do it, it was just done. Overall though I enjoyed the characters, they were all very likeable, and there was one shocking moment towards that end, without giving away spoilers, I was kind of saddened about. But I am interested in seeing where this series goes.

Kinetic

Loved it! She beautifully morphs the world's of Angels and the Geek Mythological God's into a world that is intriguing. Every chapter keeps you on your toes and wanting more. Instantly fell in love with the characters and their history. It's such a easy read you won't want to put it down. Can't wait for the second book!

Jennifer Milne says

Kattlynn is your typical teenaged girl: she loves her family, worries about her homework, hangs out with her friends, and checks out the cute guys.

She also just happens to be the daughter of the goddess Artemis and chosen by God to be the redeemer of fallen angels.

Which can tend to put a dent in homecoming plans.

Kinetic is Kattlynn's origin story. She goes from normal girl with normal problems to hero-girl with extraordinary problems. She is a likable and admirable heroine, taking on all the challenges and hardships of her newfound responsibility with grace and tenacity. The story is fast paced and engaging with a well constructed mythology, a steamy romance, some surprising twists and an ending that will leave you waiting with bated breath for the next book.

Fans of Twilight and the Mortal Instruments series will really enjoy this epic tale of love, courage and sacrifice.
