This was a fun little story about a young girl who loves watching videos... not dvd's, because this was written before DVD's were a big thing. I loved the antiquated technology and the magic of this story. Rose is chubby, because she likes to eat crisps and chocolate whilst watching a videos and is utterly devastated when the video breaks. Suffice to say, a little man with magic in his hands fixes it and with it give Rose the power to fast-forward and rewind her life. This is a delightful read.
