I like the cover so I can bet that its a good read. Everyone says don't judge a book by its cover but the cover gives you a preview of what's inside. :D

Morgan says

Is a great book to read

Yatchi-lucio says

To-read

And did anyone else fall for Nick? I'd like to meet a guy like him, but most likely wont. This is why people escape the harsh, cruel world of reality! Any one else feel the same? ;)

Jenna says

Not quite as enjoyable when I had already read the book, as it made the events seem familiar rather than fresh and surprising. I do continue to enjoy the drawing style, however.

By the end of the second volume, this series looks like it can be continued. The first volume did take it's time to describing Nick's struggle into understanding if he wanted to take the path as a Dark Hunter. By the second volume, Nick's trust towards those close to him tested his skills to what more he was getting himself into. If there was a third volume, or more, I think there could've been more explaining towards Nick's future adventures and those in the darkness that Nick is unaware of can't wait for this one. i loved the first. the only thing that weirded me out was ash. he just looked... messed up to me. idk, it just didn't have the 'ash' look to it, you know?

when i finished tis one, i was like, 'why did they leave out the big nick/Ambrose confrontation at the end??? why??'

Sarah Whisted says

As a fan of the book series, it's easy for me to love Nick's story in manga form - especially since he loves them himself. I hope they continue this series in this form as they're great recaps to read before each new release!

Continuation: Nick found out that Kyrian had fangs & kinda freaked - he meets Simi too later - and anyway people are dying - 14 year olds & his mom gets a new job at Sanctuary & Grim - Death himself - starts training Nick & Ambrose (his future self) keeps visiting & gave him his grimoire - Grim's planning something with this woman/creature named Laguerre & the Coach gets Nick to join the team & wants him to steal stuff & threatens to kill him otherwise - with Caleb & Kody's help - he finds out that every other team Coach Devus coached in the past died - the day after winning the entire team ended up dead & they figure out how he did it - he killed a 14 year old girl & took her heart, keeping it in a box & taking something personal from all the team members so he could sacrifice them to his master - that's why he wanted Nick to steal the items - they stop Coach Devus in time by raising the 14 year old girl, Julianne & Nick switched their life forces so she's alive again & Caleb takes her back to her proper time period - NICK & KODY R DATING BUT SHE'S SUPPOSED TO KILL HIM!!! at the end, there's some creatures (talking to Ambrose i think) about Gautier being turned & them becoming free & the blood of man running down the streets. Gotta read Illusion, book 5 of the series!
