This Is Really Good, Like The Others I've Read, Although I Haven't Read Them In Order. I Liked When They Rescued The Rabbit And She Snuggled Up

Claire says

I want to read this book because I love animals.Like rabbits,hamsters.....

I read this to my kindergartener this afternoon in about an hour. She absolutely loved it and can't wait to read the rest of the series.

Whimsical and Magical!

It's just another day at the animal clinic for two BFFs, Jess and Lily. But when a sudden mystery patient reappears out of the blue, things get a bit . . . MAGICAL! Jess and Lily discover Friendship Forest, an enchanting place where animals can talk. They make friends with Lucy Longwhiskers; a shy, cute, and tiny bunny.

But, without warning, Friendship Forest and Lucy Longwhiskers are being threaten by something evil. Now Jess and Lily must use their wits to save their new friends and wonderful secret world.

"Lucy Longwhiskers Gets Lost" was a great book. It was a unique story because it's not your typical fantasy with princesses and dragons. I feel ages 8-9 would enjoy this book because it is an easy read with fun characters and humor. This story put a smile on my face, and I think it will put a smile on your face too!

It is the first day of vacation, and Lily and Jess are working at the animal hospital. But then they see a cat and they followed it. The cat leads them to a tree, and then the cat rubs itself against the tree trunk and a small door appears. Lily and Jess and the cat climbed through it.

Suddenly, they find themselves in a world where animals talk and walk upright. Lily and Jess meet a lot of amazing creatures. But when an evil witch named Grizelda turns up with her evil servants, the boggits, they take Lucy the bunny captive. Can Goldie the cat, Lily, and Jess get Lily back home?

I love this book a lot. The series that it's in is one of my favorite series that I've read.

I just love this Book....in fact I love the Series. It is a really cute adorable series for young children who are in 3rd Grade up to 5th grade age group. This is Book #1 in the Magic Animal Friends Series. Book #1 is called " Lucy Longwhiskers Gets Lost. I just love reading books like this one right here. I give this Book 5/5 Stars and I highly recommend this book to anybody actually. I am planning on reading the rest of the books in this series. I got this book from my Library.

Looks like we have found another series of books for Graciela (thank goodness!!). She was very proud of the fact these books say grade 3 reading level on the back (cos she is only gr 2) but I think they are well suited for gr 2 with lots of pictures and more spaced type than Rainbow Fairies. She is about to embark on #2 so I have ordered the rest through the library to try and keep ahead!!!

The beginning of a new magical series that will keep readers coming back for new adventures in the Friendship Forest. Magic, cute animals, and friendship is a simple and winning combination.

Caryn Caldwell says

Best friends Lily and Jess love to help out at Lily's family's wild animal hospital. But when they follow a former patient into the forest, they discover a portal to a magical world where animals can talk. All is not well in this world, however; an evil witch is trying to take over the land for herself, and she'll stop at nothing to achieve her goal -- even kidnapping sweet baby bunnies.

This is an adorable early chapter book, with enough magic, adventure, and talking animals to draw in new readers. While my sensitive five-year-old found this one a bit scary, others may enjoy the suspense. We will try this one again later. All in all, a very nice start to a brand new series.

I think animals and magic are great topics for young girls like my daughters. I just have one issue. I know the girls Lily and Jess love animals, but in the world where animals talk and act like humans, some having clothes and a café, I don't think the girls should just casually touch the animals or pick them up like pets. They need to be respected like humans.

Susan says

This is the first book in the Magic Animal Friends series. With eight chapters, just over 100 pages and lots of black and white illustrations, this is ideal for more fluent readers who needs something a little more challenging than first chapter books.

Lily Hart's parents run the Helping Paw Wildlife Hospital and her new best friend is Jess Forester, who lives locally. It is the first day of the summer holidays and the two girls are happy to help out at the Wildlife Hospital, when they come across a golden cat which leads them to the magical Friendship Forest (cleverly hidden within an old, oak tree), where animals can talk.

This is a lovely story for younger children – it has a magical world, talking animals, wicked witches and all sorts of enchanting events. The girls need to rescue the little baby bunny, Lucy Longwhiskers, from the wicked witch Grizelda. Can they help the animals of the forest? The end of this book has the promise of more adventures and this will have great appeal; especially to girls who love animals.
