From Reader Review Hide and Seek: with Lovable, Furry Old Grover for online ebook

Alicia Evans says

Grover wants to play hide and seek with you and he's going to hide. He tries hiding everywhere, but hiding in a white book when you're bright blue can be difficult. This book is just plain fun and very cute. It also has an ending that would be an entertaining way to talk to kids about manners and lying, depending on how the parent or guardian wants to interpret the ending.

Mikey Golczynski says

On par with The Monster At The End of this Book. I loved this when I was young.

---

Becky says

Excellent for five year olds who will want it read it over and over and over again!

---

Darinda says

Read: paperback (owned)

Grover is my favorite. I went through a phase of collecting all the Grover books I could find. This is one of them. And, this is one of my favorite Grover books!

---

Sally says

5 stars for childhood love

3 stars for greatness, lol

5yo loves it and happily counts to 10 about a dozen times each reading

Never says

Another great Jon Stone grover book. I love how meta these are, and the comic-style illustrations.

---

Fiona says

Super cute for my 3.5 year old son! He loves it.

Daniel says

This is a fun one that isn't maybe quite as good as Monster at the End of This Book, but you can't blame it for that. It's well-done in the same interactive format that plays with the fourth wall, and the end is "aww" heartwarming.

Kim says

Everyone needs a little bit of Grover sometimes. Today I did. Thank you, Little Free Library at the Pomegranate Cafe in Phoenix, Arizona for providing me with this nostalgic gem!

Annora says

Cute

I had this book as a child. Reading it again was like opening up a piece of my childhood. It's sweet and clever and funny!

Jobiska (Cindy) says

Good ol' Grover, he always delivers.

Brian says

From my personal library...this is a great interactive bedtime story. Abby didn't want to count to 10, though, to give Grover a chance to hide...so we haven't finished it yet :-)

Amy says

Grover was always one of my favorite Sesame Street characters. In this very silly book, lovable, furry old Grover tries to hide from you within the pages while you (or your child) count to ten before trying to find him, a great book for young children!

HeavyReader says

This book is right up there with Grover's There's a Monster at the End of This Book. That one's awesome, and this one is too.

I like the way (if the read aloud person does his/her job right) the person listening to the story gets to interact with Grover. FUN!

Elizabeth S says

A lot of fun to read with an engaged preschooler or toddler. Almost as wonderful as The Monster at the End of this Book.
