Baby On Board Lisa Ruff

Kate Stevens needs a daddy for her baby-to-be. Candidates must be dependable, stay-at-home family men who don't rush off to sea every time the wind changes. Patrick Berzani need not apply. The adventure-loving sailor may be the baby's biological father, but he's far from daddy material.

Patrick thought he and Kate were great together before, but now? They could be even better. And for Kate to believe he wouldn't be a good father to his child, well, Patrick has something to say about that, too! He just has to convince Kate. So while she interviews prospective daddies, Patrick plans to prove he's the ideal—the only—father for their child. And the man Kate loves and needs.

Sarah says

Seriously, a very sweet, loving book.

A few twists, bumps, and all that, but all in all, very good.

Vera says

Is Kate really being fair to Patrick? He didn't even know she was with child the first few months. He was out to sea, but she thinks he won't make a good father because of this. He tries to show her his love, but she seems determined to find someone else to marry and raise the baby.

To me Kate seems a little selfish.

Nice romance but a little different.
