Love Under Two Undercover Cops Cara Covington

Having suddenly found herself out of work, Nancy Jessop returns home to Lusty from DC. Determined to get on with her life and never look back, she's shocked when two hot lawyers, Washington lobbyists Eli Barton and Jeremiah Winthrop, show up at her cousin Gord's engagement party at Lusty Appetites. Nancy wastes no time in telling them to leave—which of course prompts them to do the exact opposite.

The men need to come clean about a couple of things. The first is that they're not just lawyers—they're FBI agents who've spent the last couple of years working undercover as members of a task force.

The second is more complicated: they are in love with her, but they have reason to suspect she's somehow landed on the shit list of a very influential, and very unsavory politician.

Will Eli and Jeremiah be able to stop the man bent on harming their woman—and win her trust and love?

While Nancy wasn't one of my favorites, I did love how she called out the guys, right in front of everyone, I'm sure that they didn't expect that. I thought it was funny how the guys were interested in Nancy, but weren't sure she could handle both of them. Little did they know that menages were nothing salacious to Nancy or anyone in Lusty. It was fun to see the guys react to the way of life in Lusty and the museum.

I knew that things would go crazy with the plan to get the bad guy, because let's face it, in Lusty, things always do and the women always save the day. I was glad that they all got their HEA, it will be interesting how the guys will fit into the town.

Not my favorite

As much as it pains me to say this, this was not my favorite. I have enjoyed all The Lusty Texas series, but this book didn't live up to expectation. The story was ok, but based on previous books and the menage lifestyle, having Nancy not think the relationship would last and her insecurities believing these men could love her was very out of character for a woman raised with two fathers in this lusty town. Also, sometimes it is not necessary to have so much smack talk before, during and after a sex scene and sometimes it's nice knowing they had sex without all the minute description.

 Another Great Lusty tale... ***

Great characters, deeply thoughtful, erotic and sexy romance, too. Loved Nancy, Eli and Jeremiah. All have true feelings, loving natures, and wonderful romance.

Love to see characters from other books in this series, reunite with their continued stories.

We always learn new things, and how to best deal with life's issues.

I highly recommend this whole series of awesome stories. All are super sexy, and filled with amazing characters !

ENJOY !!!

Anna says

A bit better than the last story this was still very predictable and having just read the previous book it felt so much like the same one. These stories are written to a fairly specific formula that doesn't change so I guess the moral of the story is not to read too many of them in a row and just enjoy them for what they are - a fun, moderately sexy romp.

Opinionated and Brutally Honest Reviews says

The men are gods and the women worship them.

There are only a handful of authors that I will sacrifice sleep for and Cara Covington/Morgan Ashbury is one of them!! Love Under Two Undercover Cops is another wonderful addition to the Lusty family. Cara does a wonderful job creating characters that you fall in love with right from the beginning. I loved the chemistry, passion and of course the incredible sex that was between Eli, Nancy and Jeremiah. Nancy proves to be another one of the feisty women of Lusty that is going to keep her men on their toes. Cara Covington is one of those authors that is always a MUST buy for me!!!

Le Sigh* I always know when I pick up a book written by Cara Covington, (aka, Morgan Ashbury) that I'm going to love it before I read the first word. Always. She's been on my auto-buy list for quite a while now and she forever will be. I adore the entire Lusty, Texas Series, and LOVE UNDER TWO UNDERCOVER COPS just about wedged it's way into my all time favorite spot. When I finished, I felt like my heart had been hugged. No better feeling in the world. Don't you want your heart to be hugged? BUY this book now! Buy any and everything she writes! I guarantee you will love them all!

Outstanding doesn't cover how I feel about this book. I LOVED LUT Undercover Cops so much, I know this book is going on my paperback "TO BUY" list. I just adored the characters, chemistry, hot passion, and even hotter sex! I am NEVER disappointed with Cara Covington's (aka Morgan Ashbury) work. She does a splendid job of creating a sensual, touching, emotional book that left me completely sated and satisfied. Its like coming home on a cold day and snuggling under my favorite snuggie and sipping a cup of hot chocolate: It warms me from my head to my toes and definitely in my heart. I can't wait for the next book

Tina says

Nancy is ready to come home but she doesn't realize it until she loses her job. Nancy has been so busy trying to make a difference she has forgotten what is important to and for her. I love how Ms. Covington allowed Nancy to come to this realization gradually. I also enjoyed how Ms. Covington showed us that a strong foundation doesn't always protect you from a world that is sometimes harsh. Nancy's sheltered upbringing wasn't enough to protect her from nasty arrows aimed squarely at the heart of a woman which can wear down even the most confidant women. Maybe I read too much in this story but I can honestly say that is one of my take a ways once I finished Love Under Two Undercover Cops by Cara Covington.

To say that I enjoyed Nancy's story doesn't adequately explain my feelings once I completed it. I anticipated enjoying it because not only do I adore Ms. Covington's stories I also adore returning to Lusty. But I found myself struggling with this review because I so identified with Nancy. Not in the trappings of her life but with her thought process. With Nancy Ms. Covington gave me a character that hit closer than anticipated and caused me to re-evaluate both myself and my ideas. I appreciate that her words struck a chord within me and hopefully will allow me to grow. That being said this story was full of what I have come to expect from Ms. Covington, love and acceptance. I found myself laughing and enjoying the antics of the town even as I appreciated their support for and of each other.

Five Shooting Stars!!

Angel says

Nancy Jessop has been home in Lusty for about a month now and who should she see as she happens to glance up, but those two lawyers that she thought she left behind in DC....Eli Barton and Jeremiah Winthrop are happy to have tracked Nancy down and them being in Lusty is not the only thing that she had wrong about these two men... I found this one to be great. It had a few more twists and turns than the other stories so far in the series...onto the next
