Cupid, meet your match

Judd Foster is the perfect new project for Moon Valley's resident do-gooder, Erika Dunn. After serving in Special Ops, Judd has returned to his family's ranch, seeking solitude to overcome the traumas he's endured. But sweet-talkin' Erika intends to wipe away this cowboy's pain with a dose of her irresistible small-town charm.

Of course, Erika's interest isn't purely selfless?not when Judd's been the man of her dreams since she was a little girl. Sure, he's a bit gruff and withdrawn now. But when the two are forced to pretend they're a couple, Erika knows that Judd is still the only man for her. And this Texas Cupid isn't above using every arrow she's got to capture the heart of her cowboy!

Cindy Bolen says

A Valentine favorite... Mine at least

Erika is a sweet, bubbly, outgoing woman. Judd is grouchy, inverted man who is trying to adjust back to civilian life after the military. Erika wants Judd's barn and doesn't seem to take no for an answer. She decides to help him end his hermit lifestyle and ends up getting him to fall head over heels for her.

Sweet, Romantic, and funny

Sherry says

Laugh out loud funny.

Debbie Heaton says

In Finch's romantic novel, Judd Foster has just returned home to the family ranch after serving in Special Ops. He wants only to surround himself with solitude while he heals from the trauma he's endured. Enter Erika Dunn, the local do-gooder who views Judd as the man of her dreams. When circumstances intrude and the pair is forced to pretend they are a couple, Cupid's arrow strikes!

A nice addition to the Cowboy at Heart series.
